BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, before moving Senate Bill No. 190 over in order, I think for the information of the public I should state that it has been decided that a public hearing will be held on this bill and on Senate Bill 644, next Wednesday morning at ten o'clock in the Senate Caucus Room.

The reason for this, Mr. President, is that there seems to be a great deal of misunderstanding with respect to the oleo problem. A great number of letters are being received by the Senators complaining about a tax on oleo, and there is no bill in the legislature, to my knowledge, providing for a tax on oleo. On the other hand, Mr. President, the Department of Agriculture insists that it must have some sort of registration cards to handle oleo, or it would be impossible for them to insure a pure product for the consumers of oleo in Pennsylvania.

Therefore, Mr. President, in order to get the facts on the whole situation, there will be a public hearing, which, as I said, will be held next Wednesday morning at ten o'clock in the Senate Caucus Room.

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1050, entitled:

An Act to protect consumers in the purchase for fuel purposes of the hard coal known as anthracite providing for and regulating the sale offering for sale resale delivery and shipment of anthracite according to a standard provided for in this act requiring producers and dealers and persons engaged in the sale and resale of anthracite from storage yards or otherwise to consumers to keep certain records conferring powers on the Anthracite Committee and its agents and providing penalties

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1053, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto a new section authorizing the creation of an additional debt by the Commonwealth for the payment of compensation to certain veterans.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. WALKER offered the following amendment:

Amend page 2, section 1, line 9, by inserting after the word "states" and before the word "during", the following: "or of any of her allies".

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, as amended,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading, as amended?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, my understanding was that House Bill 1053, after these amendments were adopted, would go over in its order, without passing second reading, until Monday. I think somebody should make a motion to that effect. That was my understanding, that this bill would go over until Monday, without second reading, after the amendments have been adopted, and I think that should be done.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, that is perfectly satisfactory.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, I wanted to have a public statement about that because it seems necessary to amend this bill in a way which seems perfectly proper to me, with more limited information, and with this amendment being proposed and being agreed to, it was the understanding that the bill would stay on second reading after the amendments were adopted, in the absence of quite a number of people here, so that it may have second reading on Monday, which only means a delay or one day.

The PRESIDENT. That is the position of the bill; it is still on second reading, as amended.

Cooper,

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, in the morning papers I note that out in Oklahoma City, a rather desperate, irritated and frustrated member of the House walked in and shot a Senator. Now, members of the House, I am not recommending the procedure but it is an idea.

I want to call the attention of the Chairman of the House Education committee and of the administration and the members of this House that the Republican platform says: "We favor salary standards for teachers comparable with those of other professions requiring similar training and education." That is the promise in the Republican platform.

The promise of the Democratic platform is that "... we establish teachers' salaries at levels which will induce competent men and women to enter the teaching profession as a life career."

Those are definite commitments. I fail to understand the reluctance of those in control of the machinery of this House, the reluctance of those who speak for the administration, to proceed with the prompt fulfillment of those two specific promises, promises that cannot be evaded. I feel, Mr. Speaker, that there may be method in the delay. Perhaps the crusade which the teachers were putting on and their friends were putting on reached its climax several weeks ago, and it may be that someone imagined that by a process of delay it will be possible to institute a program of compromise which will not redeem these specific promises. We would like to see a solution of the State's educational problem brought out upon the floor of this House, and we shall resent by every parliamentary expedient at our disposal being required to make hasty decisions on matters like House Bill 417 in the closing hours of a dilatory session. There isn't any reason in the world why all of the really important business of this House should be brought to its attention in the final week. One of these days there will be trotted out a motion to set a day for final adjournment. Then the flood gates will open.

I propose upon the part of those to whom this House, as represented by its leadership, has made promises, that they take sufficient time to redeem those promises, and I repeat that we will resent by any parliamentary method at our disposal being compelled to do in two or three days the work that should have occupied the attention of this House over a period of weeks—and I might say weeks that have been in my opinion largely wasted.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I did not think that it would be less than twenty-four hours that the gentleman would be in such a rush to spend the money which we just voted in this House. The ink is still wet on the revenue raising provisions. There hasn't been a chance to have it signed yet. There is no reluctance on the part of the majority of the House to fulfill the commitments of the platform in toto. It will not be done hastily; it will be done as a result of considered study, not for weeks but since the first day of this session.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, might I briefly reply, that it had been my fond hope, that I am sorry to see shattered, that there was a complete understanding as to what the money should be spent for prior to the time the taxes were enacted. It is a lamentable situation, I confess, that we have raised the money, and now in our leisure time figure how in the thunder we are going to to spend it.

SENATE BILL No. 66, PRINTER'S No. 124 RETURNED WITHOUT APPROVAL

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 12, 1947.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 66, Printer's No. 124, entitled "An act making a deficiency appropriation to the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf at Mount Airy Philadelphia Pennsylvania."

The appropriation which would be made by this bill would be available only to cover a deficiency incurred during the biennium ending May 31, 1947, and not any accumulated deficiency from operations in prior periods. I am informed that the 1945-1947 deficiency will be about $79,000. Since there is already available in Act 4A an appropriation to meet this deficiency, the appropriation in this bill would not be needed.

For this reason, the bill is not approved.

BILL SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bill had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 381, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (f) of section four hundred forty-eight of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employees in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employees of certain departments, boards, and commissions shall be determined," increasing the number of members of The Advisory Health Board, requiring one of such members to be a licensed dentist, and one to be a licensed pharmacist.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, and members of the Senate the fraud perpetrated on the unsuspecting public by dealers in automobiles and automobile finance companies has assumed gigantic proportions. Fortunately, The Philadelphia Inquirer has brought to light the methods used by the unscrupulous automobile dealers and finance companies, and to give you an idea of what has been and still is taking place every day before our very eyes, I read from an editorial appearing in The Philadelphia Inquirer dated May 11, 1947.

"Stop the Auto Finance Gyps by Passing This Bill

"There is one bright feature to the auto finance swindle which The Inquirer has exposed as a companion-piece to the new-used car racket; It can be swiftly ended by passage of a bill now before the State Senate.

"The profiteers who have been extorting huge sums from veterans and other persons of moderate means who go to them to finance their car purchases are deathly afraid of this bill.

"They are fighting it desperately at Harrisburg and despite its passage by the House, without a dissenting vote, they hope, if not to defeat it or recommit it, at least to extract its teeth or otherwise weaken it before its final passage.

"This newspaper has shown during the past week the vicious ramifications of the 'bonus' system whereby persons who need a new car quickly are mulcted from $500 to $1000 above the list price. Those who refuse to engage in under-counter deals with certain dealers or who cannot afford to pay the extra price exacted on the used car lots, for brand new cars very often find themselves at the bottom of dealers' lists, compelled to wait indefinitely for deliveries.

"The victim of the bonus deal is frequently the victim also of the finance company gyps. Wishing to spread payment on his newly purchased car over a period of months—having paid much more than the legitimate price for it—he falls into the hands of the unscrupulous firms who pyramid interest fees sometimes as high as 150 percent.

"All sorts of extra charges are presented so that customers frequently pay hundreds of dollars more than they should for the finance services.

"It is this practice that the bill in the Senate would eliminate by placing a legal ceiling on interest rates, by requiring a license for all financing firms and by making it necessary for them to present to the customer a detailed contract showing plainly how much he is paying and what he is receiving for the payment.

"The auto finance syp should be stopped. The way to stop it is by enactment of the Lichtenwalter-Sorg bill at Harrisburg."

Mr. President, this is hardly credible, but definitely the truth. Who are the victims generally of the brazen conspiracy to gouge and exact unconscionable sums of money? The wage-earner, the G. I. boys, the professional man and many others who need automobiles in the pursuit of their business. Sooner or later thousands of those mentioned, unable to pay the extortionate rates, will be forced to abandon their cars, lose everything they put in their cars, and still have judgments entered against them for unpaid balances, and their worldly possessions subjected to attachment. I term it black-jacking, and to put it in milder language—usury.

Usury—an obnoxious term, although today more or less legalized—has always been regarded as the curse of humanity. From the time of Moses up to today the prohibition of usury has been constant in all ages and all countries. Despite our seeming advance in civilization, the slimy vultures who feed upon the misery and misfortunes of the wage-earner are just as rapacious in their greed as ever. Usury has been prescribed as a sin and an evil since time immemorial. The Bible, Papal edicts and royal decrees have banned it from the moral codes of humanity. Greater than the sin of usury is its appalling economic waste and the moral servitude it imposes upon a poverty-stricken citizenry. Let us once and for all outlaw them. It can not happen, too soon.

The Philadelphia Inquirer has launched a vigorous campaign against these slimy vultures. It has awakened an aroused citizenry, and further crystalized public sentiment in favor of strong and immediate action against these auto finance companies who have been bootlegging blood money. It is our job now. Let us pass the Sorg-Lichtenwalter bill without delay. The bill is the result of about eighteen months' investigation, in which several of our members participated. Every day's delay means the loss of thousands of dollars to our people.

Now, with respect to the purchase of new cars? It was my impression that with the departure of O. P. A. control, black-marketing would come to an end and new cars could be bought at list price. But it was only wishful thinking. Black-marketing is rearing its ugly head and reappearing in different forms, excepting that it is now more vicious, and further, is being practiced with immunity. Unfortunately, there is no law on our statute books to protect prospective purchasers of automobiles against the deliberate hiking of prices of new cars by either new or used car dealers. Without elaborating, purchasers of cars are paying from $500 to $1,000 above list price.

The automobile industry has faithfully promised to curb the practice. Committees are being organized by new and used car dealers to break up the hijacking methods used by parasitic dealers. I do not doubt or question their faith and integrity. However, that in itself is not sufficient. In my mind, a law is needed with sufficient teeth in it to correct the existing evils. Therefore the bill which I am about to introduce makes it unlawful for any automobile dealer to sell an automobile or automobiles at a retail price above that fixed by the manufacturer or the automobile industry. Any violation calls for a fine of $5,000 or one year's imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the Court.

This bill simply sets up safeguards to protect the public against unwarranted and arbitrary increases as imposed by the dealer.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. JASPAN read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 724, entitled:

An Act making it a crime to sell or offer for sale any automobile at a price in excess of the manufacturer's retail price thereof.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. RAHAUSER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. RAHAUSER. Mr. President and members of the Senate the civic organizations of my district and the Women's Clubs of Allegheny County Voters were informed by the press of last week that Senate Bill 190, the Farrell bill, providing for the repeal of the archaic margarine laws, was coming up for public hearing this week, and, while a public hearing is generally advantageous, they were particularly interested that this bill should not be recommitted. The Democratic minority of this Senate likewise feels if this bill were recommitted, that would be its end.

Democratic minority feeling on this matter was intensified last week by the appearance on our desks of some literature from interests outside this state, and, while we are always willing to listen to any facts and figures relative to state matters, we are definitely opposed to propaganda from outside the state coming into this Senate and attempting to influence members of this body.

We are definitely opposed to the type of propaganda placed on our desks by the Milk Producers Federation of Washington, D. C.

First, it is scandalous propaganda, containing no facts or figures relative to the issue.

Second, it is propaganda against oleomargine, instituted by those companies who, a few years ago, used to mix tallow or lard and other similar products of a low cost with butter and sell it as a pure product.

These out-of-state interests have no merit for their opposition to Senate Bill 190, but they will use every available method to kill this beneficial legislation.

I have shown, from time to time, that the interests of the farmer will not be affected by the Farrell Bill, but I can readily see how those interests outside the state may be affected.

We are definitely opposed to their influence and their attempt to have Senate Bill 190 recommitted or postponed on the second-reading calendar.

If there is any procedural need to have a bill before the Committee of Agriculture for public hearing, they already have Senate Bill 85, a bill which I introduced for the purpose of accomplishing the same thing as Senate Bill 190, namely the repeal of the archaic margarine laws. The fact that the Committee on Agriculture had done nothing from February 4th, when I introduced my oleomargarine bill, until the present time, is sufficient proof that, if Senator Farrell's bill would be recommitted to that committee, this committee would, likewise, do nothing on that bill.

Pennsylvania statutes on olemargine are archaic, and there is no need for them.

There is no need for Senate Bill 644, which is designed to put more archaic legislation on the statute books of Pennsylvania. There has been a complete change in the wholesomeness of the product and the economic factors that deal with this product since the enactment of these statutes.

Previously it was pointed out that, where once the dairy farmers depended on the production of butter to consume the milk supply of this state, today the demand for milk products, in their many forms, is far beyond the state's supply.

The nutritious quality of margarine has changed more than the economic factors that aroused opposition to this food in the early 1880's.

In 1887, in Powell v. Pennsylvania (114 Pa., 265) the Supreme Court said:

"That most kinds of oleomargarine butter in the market contain ingredients that are or may become injurious to health. The Court can not say, form anything, of which it may take judicial cognizance, that such is not the fact."

Sixty years ago this was the thought back of the legislation on margarine. Today, the best known food experts recommend its use. The Council of Foods and Nutritions report, 16th April, 1944, Dr. George A. Anderson, states:

"The fact that margarine is lower in cost to produce than butter is nutritionally important, and attempts to stigmatize it, or restrict its distribution, are undesirable."

The Committee on Public Health Relation of New York Academy of Medicine, 1st February, 1943, said as follows:

"In order that the health of the population may not be impaired by the adoption of a diet insufficient in fats and fat soluble vitamins, the committee recommends that the major distribution and consumption of oelomargarine be encouraged."

It further goes on to show how margarine, which contains a large quantity of whole milk, contains vital food elements which are not present in butter fat. It states that whole milk possesses proteins of excellent quality and it is an excellent source of certain inorganic salts needed in the diet, particularly such as calcium and phosphate.

The courts, in contrast to their findings in 1887, in the appeal in which the fees on oleomargarine were declared unconstitutional, in 92 Commonwealth Docket 1946 in their "8" and "9" findings, stated as follows:

"8. Oleomargine or margarine is a pure, wholesome and nutritive article of food, and is made from ingredients, all of which are pure, wholesome, and nutritive.

"9. Oleomargarine or margarine is a well-recognized and established article of food and is sold in competition with, but not as a substitute for, other articles of food."

In 1887 whole milk was not a basic constituent of this product; today it is.

In 1887 there was no such thing as Vitamin A content; in oleomargine today each pound of margarine contains at least 9,000 units, with most of it containing 15,000 or 20,000 units per pound.

Why should this Senate enact similar legislation on this product when conditions have changed so materially in the past sixty years.

Why should this Senate attempt to hamper the distribution of a low cost food of such valuable nutrition, especially today when this body should be doing all in its power to decrease the cost of living on every item of food.

It is claimed that barriers are needed so that the public can purchase food properly labeled. This, likewise, is unfounded. First, the Pure Foods Act of 1909, P. L. 520 made this a provision. Products that compete are today sold properly labeled.

In the sale of cereals we have competing commodities. No license fees or troublesome reports are needed. Corn Flakes and Wheaties, or the several types of bran are sold under their proper labels.

In the shortening field there is Spry, Crisco and Lard.

There is no complaint that these products are sold as substitutes and no license fee is needed for the public protection in this matter.

Relishes of the same basic constituent are sold under their labels without any complaint that the public is deceived.

Jellies and sperads of many kinds are required to be labeled, yet there is no hindrance placed on their distribution.

Hundreds of other foods are required to be labeled but no license fees or troublesome reports are imposed on these products.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in White's appeal (287 Pa., 259, at page 266) set forth very well the attitude of the Democratic minority of this Senate on this subject, wherein the Court stated:

"The power to thus regulate does not extend to an arbitrary, unnecessary or unreasonable intermeddling with the private ownership of property, even though such acts be labeled for the preservation of health, safety and general welfare."

There must be some reason for the use of the "general welfare" clause.

Certainly there is none in the case of margarine. This was clearly pointed out by the Court in No. 92 Commonwealth Docket, 1946—

"* * * And the fines collected from 1931 to 1946 ranged from nothing in four separate years to $300, in no year exceeding $300; so that if the fines in any way reflect the amount of time and energy expended by the Department, the fees are outrageously unreasonable.

"We have found that the full time of no one man is required to enforce the oleomargarine statute, and five of the agents assigned for only part time for the seasonal enforcement of both the oleomargarine and the carbonated beverage statutes. Furthermore, by no process of imagination, could one-tenth of the amount collected in fees be required for the enforcement of the oleomargarine statute, * * *"

The fact that there is no need for this legislation must be recognized by the Department of Agriculture when no full-time man is required to enforce the oleomargarine act.

The Supreme Court has never hesitated to declare an act invalid where changed circumstances have rendered the statute invalid, and we here in the Senate should not hesitate to repeal an Act that is no longer in accord with present circumstances, an Act which both the changing economy and modern science has rendered obsolete.

Justice Holmes said, in Chastleton v. Sinclair, 264 U. S. 543, 547:

"A law depending upon the existence of an emergency or other certain state of facts to uphold it may cease to operate if the emergency ceases or the facts change even though valid when passed."

Our courts, likewise, have stated the same process, in Kittanning Boro. v. Nat. Gas Co., 239 Pa. 210, 214—wherein it said as follows:

"As the case then stood we can understand how the learned court felt constrained to follow the rule of these cases, but according to our view of facts of the present case are substantially different from those cited and relied on. * * * Under these circumstances we think the case should have been considered upon its merits in the light of the evidence produced at the trial and that it was not ruled by former cases in which a different state of facts was presented."

These principles must certainly apply to the archaic margarine statutes and certainly this body should not enact legislation such as Senate Bill 644, that was outdated forty years ago and most certainly there is no reason to recommit Senate Bill No. 190, whose only purpose it is to repeal outdated legislation, such as legislation that our sister state of Ohio passed only a few days ago. Certainly, let us keep up to and abreast of our sister state.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. HEYBURN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I followed with a great deal of interest the prepared statement of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Rahauser. When he speaks, Mr. President, of rushing through this Senate some sort of legislation that takes off all controls on oleo without any consideration whatsoever, I think, Mr. President, he recommends that we do something impossible.

I am not interested in a butter or milk lobby or an oleo lobby, Mr. President, but I do think the representatives of the citizens of this great Commonwealth should take the necessary precautions to determine for themselves whether or not some sensible regulation of the oleo industry is necessary in this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In line with that, Mr. President, I would like to read, if I may, for a few minutes from the book, "Beef, Veal and Lamb Operations of the American Meat Institute," published in 1945.

To begin with, Mr. President, this is a pro-oleo publication. The meat packing industry, as you probably know, is engaged in the manufacture of oleo from animal fats. If I may, Mr. President, I would like to read for a moment something about the early history of oleo; I really did not know this myself until I happened to pick up this book the other night.

"Margarine dates from the time of the Franco-Prussian War of 1870-71. During the siege of Paris, Napoleon III offered prizes for a spread for bread which should relieve the starving Parisians. Such an article had been developed by Hippolyte M'ege in 1869, and he received the prize which had been offered by Napoleon for the invention.

"His process is said to have been essentially as follows: He heated finely-chopped beef suet to about 115° F. with water, carbonate of potash, and fresh minced sheep's stomach. At this temperature, the pepsin from the sheep's stomach dissolved and separated the animal tissue from the oil which he then removed and cooled slowly, thus causing a portion of the stearine to crystallize. He then separated the crystallized stearine from the oleo by pressure, and used the oil for butter-making. He churned about 10 lbs. of this fat with 4 lbs. of milk and 3 lbs. of water and a trace of annatto for color."

I submit, Mr. President, milk was in the original oleo, contrary to what the gentleman said, if I heard him correctly. Now, Mr. President, I just want to read a further paragraph from the same publication. Speaking of the manufacture of oleo and the importance of proper supervision, it has this to say:

"Emphasis has been placed on the necessity for the constant exercise of care in the selection of the raw materials entering into the manufacture of margarine. (so says this publication, Mr. President.) In addition to this, it seems well to emphasize the fact that ordinary methods of sanitation are not sufficient for the margarine factory. In preserving pure cultures in the milk room, one must constantly guard against the development of wild cultures and of contamination from foreign sources. Constant checks must be made upon the cultures, and it must be apparent that in any process which depends upon bacteria to give the desired flavor—which regulates the acceptability of the product—special watch should be kept to guard against foreign bacteria of all kinds.

"Margarines are susceptible to infection by milk spores and bacteria present in the air. These are able to subsist on the carbon present in fatty acids and glycerides; some are able to saponify glycerides and some are responsible for undesirable flavors in other ways. Infection from the air can be minimized by filtering all air entering the plant. Supplies must be so handled as not to be a source of infection. Sodium hypochlorite is used generously as a sterilizing agency."

Mr. President, I do not think I have to read any further to convince anyone that if this Senate of Pennsylvania is going to do its duty, it should conduct this public hearing and allow the Secretary of Agriculture and others to come before us and tell us what measures we should take, so that the people of Pennsylvania may get a clean, wholesome pure package of oleo.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, on various and sundry occasions I, with my colleagues in the Senate, have listened to the very interesting and appealing prayer of the gentleman from Allegheny for the votes the women's clubs through the oily processes of oleomargarine and butter, but this afternoon, in addition to the very able discussion of my colleague from Delaware, Senator Heyburn, I should like to read into the record a little bit of the history of a great industry of Pennsylvania that might be affected adversely by the ill-advised passage of legislation at this time.

The Senator from Allegheny, together with his colleagues, have come before us at various and sundry times and told us of the importance of legislation for or against the down-trodden labor unions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the steel industry, or the coal industry, or the other industries of Pennsylvania, and in that I join. It is a very momentous problem, it is a big industry problem, it is a big state problem, it is a big problem.

Last week's figures, released by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, show that 5,800,000 independent American farmers own the biggest private industry in the world, and that 37 per cent of its citizens derive their income from this great industry known as the agricultural industry of America. The value of their land, buildings, crops on hand, live stock, machinery and other equipment has passed the 90 billion mark in America. Their output for the year 1946 exceeded 25 billion dollars, against 5 billion dollars for the great steel industry of America, and 3 billion, two hundred million dollars for the great automotive industry of America. It is odd to note that in Pennsylvania exactly the same proportion of our citizens derive their income as they do nationally; in other words, 37 per cent of the people in Pennsylvania derive their entire livelihood from agricultural and, odd as it may seem, in the county of Cumberland 37 per cent of the people derive their income from the same source.

We all realize, Mr. President, the importance of the dairy industry in Pennsylvania. In the number of milk cows we rank tenth in the United States. In the value of our cows we rank fifth, with a total value slightly in excess of $200,000,000. We also rank fifth in the nation in the value of dairy products, with a figure that is also close to half a billion dollars.

The farmers of Pennsylvania obtain more than one-third of their gross income from the dairy industry. It is readily seen that any decline in cash receipts from this very important branch of our agriculture not only would affect the farmers, but would affect the consumers as well. The situation with regard to consumers of one of our most important food products could become very serious. I need not emphasize the fact that any decline in demand for dairy products means a corresponding decline in dairy farms and dairy cattle.

A few years ago, Mr. President, we all experienced the serious situation created by an unstable market for dairy products, which was almost tragic to this greatest of all American industries. In Cumberland county alone we have over a thousand dairy farms. The value of dairy products sold in Cumberland County is $3,000,000 annually. That, too, is very closely paralleled by the great dairy industry in the home county of our colleague, who now hails from Allegheny County but I venture to say that if he could recall the early days of his lifetime, that therefrom his mother and father, who lived on a farm, derived most of their income, and that the cost of his early education was met because of this great industry that we have in Pennsylvania.

I join with my colleague from Delaware county in agreeing that we are not afraid for the dairy industry in Pennsylvania because of this product known as oleomargarine, but we are intensely interested in the future health of not only the citizens of Pennsylvania, but particularly the young growing people of Pennsylvania, those that need strong minds and strong bodies to meet the problems of tomorrow.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I did not intend to enter into any debate relative to the merits or demerits of any oleo bill before the Senate and appearing on the calendar, but the remarks of the gentleman from Cumberland were so obviously misplaced that perhaps a little clarification would not hurt at this time.

The gentleman from Cumberland suggested that the gentleman from Allegheny, in making his plea for an oleo repeal bill, or an oleo license repeal bill, one that would remove all restrictions from the manufacture and sale of this product, is appealing to the women's clubs for votes.

Well, Mr. President, I have been in the Senate a good many years, and in the House a few years, and if my memory serves me correctly, the Democratic party has been working for the repeal of this particular type of legislation long before any women's clubs in Pennsylvania ever thought of endorsing it, long before any organized group ever planned any fight whatsoever to repeal this type of legislation.

Be that as it may, Mr. President, I do not think the gentleman from Cumberland ought to be allowed to go entirely scott-free from the accusation that he, too, may be playing for the grange votes. It would be interesting, of course, to the members of the Senate to analyze that particular angle.

The farmers out my way, Mr. President, who are not members of an organized group, that I talked to, are pretty much users themselves of oleo. It would be a surprising thing if the members of the Senate were to investigate and find out how many farmers in their respective districts actually use oleo fats in their homes. A great many persons fail to realize that we have reached a new stage of economy in this nation. The question of whether the income is greater from butter that is being supplanted by the growing of vegetables that are turned into oleo, or whether the amount of income is greater from direct dairy products, is one that an economist must answer and not by members of the Senate taking haphazard guesses.

We all know this, that out of 175,000,000 pounds of butter consumed in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania per year, 150,000,000 pounds of that butter are imported from outside the state line. We all know that in the state of Pennsylvania roughly 22 per cent of all milk and milk products are imported into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania from outside of its borders. We all know that the consumption of this very healthful food product and agricultural product is far beyond any amount conceivably raised or produced in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We all know, too, that many working men and their families are deprived of a decent spread or a decent butter product because they can not afford the exorbitant prices being charged today. There is no comparison and no relationship between the price of butter, as a finished product put upon the table of the working man, and the price that butter brings to the farmer as the crude raw product that he produces upon his farm.

The question is not one of farm prosperity, Mr. President. It is a question of whether or not this Senate is going to recognize the very obvious fact that in this state of Pennsylvania, and in this nation of ours, we have obviously upheld the hands of those who have deprived the people of this state and nation of a very worthwhile element of food.

We are questioning now the free-trade element in that element of food, and not whether we are taking away from any citizen or group of citizens some of their income, or whether we are increasing the income to others. That is not the question at this time, because the problem, as raised by the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Heyburn, of the $5 license fee, whether that will in any way deter the use or the sale or the manufacture of oleo is the question. I doubt that it will. I do not think his bill will hurt anyone in the matter of the manufacture or sale of oleo but it is a question primarily of whether one group of citizens have a right to deprive another group of citizens of a worthwhile food product, and I say to you all here in this room this afternoon, that this Senate will be shirking its duty if it does not follow at least some semblance of the dictates handed down by the Supreme Court of the State of Pennsylvania when they very wisely outlawed the exorbitant license fees already assessed against this industry.

As to the question of whether we are playing for a few votes, I might say that as far as we are personally concerned, the matter of votes does not enter into the picture, because long before any organized group in this Commonwealth determined to come out and fight for this type of legislation, we were out in the forefront battling to remove the barriers that are keeping from the tables of a great many citizens of our Commonwealth and their families a very substantial food product.

Mr. HARE read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 727, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act, approved the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 837), entitled "An act providing for and requiring in certain cases preference in appointments to public position or on public works for honorably discharged persons who served in the military or naval service during any war in which the United States engaged and in certain cases for the widows and wives of such persons," precluding the requiring or furnishing of any soldier's service rank or serial number in connection with taking a civil service examination.

Which was committed to the Committee on Military Affairs and Aeronautics.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, on February 3rd, Senator Lane and I introduced Senate Bill No. 64, requiring persons employed to promote or oppose legislation to file statements with the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House. This bill was referred to State Government and there it still remains.

Since the introduction of this bill, the influence by certain lobbyists on legislation has become public scandal in some of the state legislatures now in session.

I quote from an editorial appearing in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin:

"LOBBY TROUBLE IN JERSEY

"New Jersey's Governor Driscoll, who built a reputation for forthrightness, while Alcoholic Beverage Commissioner, is just as forthright in getting after members of the legislature and lobbyists. He wants the legislature to compel lobbyists to register and file reports on what their activities cost during each session of the lawmakers. Moreover, he thinks there is room for improvements in legislative ethics, and there he is joined by Highway Commissioner Miller.

"Defeat of bills which the Governor advocated led to his insistence on action against lobbyists, and activities of legislators who are lawyers, in taking on clients interested in pending legislation, precipitated the lecture on ethics.

"Senator Farley of Atlantic County, is a member of the law firm which got a $20,000 retainer from the Atlantic City racetrack, and was active in pressing legislation favorable to the track. Commissioner Miller points out that a legislator not a lawyer who accepts such a fee would be guilty of bribery. He sees no practical difference.

"If the Governor and Highway Commissioner are successful in correcting these practices in New Jersey, they will set an example for other states. They know they have a fight on their hands, but they aren't the kind of officials who run from it."

In past sessions of the General Assembly, there has been much talk about "influenced legislation."

Papers have, through editorials and news items, practically hinted that certain legislation was bought and paid for, with the result that people throughout Pennsylvania look upon the General Assembly with suspicion, and in some cases circumstances surrounding the passage or defeat of a bill invite criticism and suspicion.

The time to correct an evil in government is before the evil breaks into open scandal.

Scandals among public officeholders break down the public's confidence in our form of government.

The Congress if the United States, in the last session, recognized an evil in government, and passed an act to regulate lobbyists.

It is now time that the General Assembly of Pennsylvania opens the lobby door and exposes to public gaze, what lies behind that door.

"Invisible Government" has no place in a Democracy.

I spoke about a week ago about the Pennsylvania Manufacturer's Association maintaining rooms to entertain, and using this entertainment to influence legislation.

A few days later, the president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturer's Association, Mr. Mason Owlett, took me to task. I now ask Mr. Owlett, if the Pennsylvania Manufacturer's Association has nothing to hide or cover up, that they come all out for this legislation.

Quite recently advertisements over the signatures of the Pennsylvania Manufacturer's Association championed legislation supposedly for the good of the public.

This legislation will protect the public of Pennsylvania from legislation of any special interest by exposing the special interest influencing the votes of elected representatives of the people.

If, according to Mr. Owlett, the Pennsylvania Manufacturer's Association has nothing to cover up, he should be the first to prove to the people of Pennsylvania that they are willing to give an accounting of what they spend and on whom they spend it. That is all this legislation does.

The Pennsylvania Manufacturer's Association are not the only ones maintaining an extensive lobby in Pennsylvania. The Self-Insurers, through Mr. Linn, maintain some very fine rooms, and I have been told that Mr. Linn is a very fine host and furnishes the best in everything.

The motor truck industry does a pretty good job in lobbying and has been under fire many times during the past sessions of the General Assembly. The effect of their pressure has been clearly demonstrated in this session.

Over a week-end, the truckers have influenced enough representatives to reconsider their votes in such quantities that the change of minds turned defeat into passage of the Box Car Bill of theirs.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is well represented. Mr. Ryder, their representative, is very solicitous for the health and needs of the members of the General Assembly. The Pew Interests, being part and parcel of the Republican Party, makes lobbying for Mr. Davis, just a little easier. Joe Pew spends his money during election time. I do not know whether Mr. Davis or Mr. Ryder will be the fifty-first Senator.

I am not opposed to lobbyists. I believe that the lobbyists representing interests, should be here. They are part of the system we work under. We should be in position to talk to them and hear their side of the argument.

Legislation should be considered on the merits, and the benefits to the people.

The bill I am introducing requires each lobbyist to report the name of his employer, the duration of his job, his salary and his expense account, and in addition quarterly reports are required, one by the individual lobbyist and the other by the organization employing him, listing money received and disbursed, legislation supported or opposed, and related data. These reports are open to the public. As low as ten dollars must be accounted for and on whom it is spent.

This bill proposes a fine of $5,000 and imprisonment for not more than twelve months, or both, and a suspension of three years from lobbying. Whenever a second offense occurs, a fine of $10,000 and five years imprisonment.

It seems to be the tendency today to go easy with the people who flaunt our government. The criminal element may use a persuader in the shape of a gun or a black-jack to secure their objective—money.

To me, the man or interests who uses lavish entertainment or gifts as a persuader to secure his objective something that can be turned into money by legislation is as much a criminal as the man who uses a gun to stick up his victim.

Too much legislation in America has been influenced by the "Money Bags."

The saying prevalent today that every public officeholder has his price must be proven a falsehood. We need a reassurance of faith in our form of government, and that faith must be protected from traitors within our political system. We must ferret these traitors out to public gaze.

This is what I endeavoring to do by this bill I am about to introduce. I am trying to bring back faith in government—I am trying to prove that democracy is not sold to the highest bidder, and that we are not a government with a dollar mark as our insignia, and that the great majority of people in public office are honest and sincere public servants.

There is no reason why all of us should be tarred for a few. That is why the lobbyist's door must be wide open. We want no "Invisible Government." We want no legislation passed in hotel rooms. We want to know what monies are being spent by any interest, whether it be labor or capital, to influence legislation.

We want to find out on whom this money is being spent. Rumors are flying—some originating from good sources—these rumors must stop.

If there is nothing to hide, then this bill should be passed. If it is not passed, then the public of Pennsylvania can use their own judgment on what is going on in Harrisburg.

Let us put an end to "Invisible Government."

I forgot to add that the Republican Congressmen from Pennsylvania voted for this bill while they were serving in the Congress of the United States in the last session.

Messrs. HOLLAND and LANE read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 728, entitled:

SENATE BILL 129 REPORTED FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, I ask for just a moment or two for the attention of the Chair and the Members of the Senate.

I desire at this time to personally report from the committee of which I am chairman, a joint resolution known as Senate Bill 129. This is an original resolution proposing an amendment to Article 9, Section 16 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, extending the provisions thereof to include certain veterans not hertofore within its provisions. That in itself is a simple matter.

However, the matters covered by this resolution are important, and there will be considerations to be taken up later, and the people of the state may be called upon later also to consider the same, as they have a somewhat similar resolution which has already been proposed and taken care of by this Senate.

Incidentally, I want to call attention to the fact that when once a resolution is introduced here like that, it means the starting of a thought, and the people should give it due consideration.

I wish at this time to explain that the members of my committee, every one individually, has been asked to pass upon this matter, Democrat and Republican alike has been asked by the author of this bill, Senator Wolfe, as to what he thought and what he would do, inasmuch as it was difficult to have a meeting of the committee on account of so many other important matters, and so Senator Wolfe personally interviewed these people, and I hold in my hand a paper which each one has signed, and again I say every member of that committee, including the chairman ex-officio, fifteen in number, have said "Senator Wilson, report that bill as committed."

Now I am adding just a word, and I hope I may not be out of place. I hope it will not be that somebody, immediately after this bill is reported for consideration from the Senate committee, thinks of some very important amendment that is vital to its necessity and usefulness and start in again to have the bill amended. I hope it is right; if it is not, like there seems to be the habit in the air now, do not lay it to me.

Therefore, Mr. President, I take pleasure in reporting, by unanimous consent and instructions of my committee, Senate Bill 129, known as a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution, as committed.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 129, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine, section sixteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania extending the provisions thereof to include certain veterans not theretofore within its provisions.

RESOLUTIONS

DIRECTING JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY AND INVESTIGATE TAX AND REVENUE RAISING PROGRAM OF COMMONWEALTH AND REPORT TO NEXT SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Messrs. WALKER and DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, May 12, 1947.

Whereas, The fiscal policy of this Commonwealth has been devised over a period of time in a piece-meal fashion; causing conflicts and duplication of taxation on the same property on the one hand and omissions of taxation on the other hand, and

Whereas, The need of a more harmonious system and method of taxation, particularly with regard to the best method of equitably and effectually reaching all property and subject of taxation which should be required to produce revenue, is self evident, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study and investigate the tax and revenue raising program of the Commonwealth with a view of promulgating a new and more efficient fiscal policy, and be it further

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission shall report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly together with such proposed legislation as it may devise to carry out its recommendations.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, at the beginning of this Session, Senator Stevenson, Senator Geltz and I introduced a bill patterned after a bill that was used in New York, to investigate the cost of government at all levels. I do not think this resolution goes far enough, because if we are going to treat this problem correctly, we will have to treat it exactly as they did in the state of New York, when they took the cost of government from top to bottom, and found that the cost of overlapping government was so enormous, and that was where the tax money was going, where it was found that certain politicians at certain levels of government would have to give up their prerogatives, and the result was for instance, in the highway department, they would have had to go all the way down to the lowest governmental level. The same thing also applied to the health department, they would have to go all the way down to the lowest level, and also the same way in inspection, weights and measures, it was a question of overlapping government, which was destroying the services that we should be given, because the moneys are being used at all levels for the same type of services.

Mr. President, I do not think this resolution goes far enough, and I believe the bill which was presented by Senator Geltz, Senator Stevenson and myself should be considered because it is a better bill, patterned after what they did in New York, and it has been proven a success, and we can use the knowledge they obtained out of their investigation in New York and could use that in the state of Pennsylvania.

I know taxes will come down not only at the level of the state government but also at the lowest level of government, because too much money is being wasted on services which are not related to the level of government that is given it.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Allegheny object to immediate consideration of the resolution.

Mr. HOLLAND. I do, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. There being objection, the resolution is referred to—

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, before referring the resolution I might suggest to the gentleman from Allegheny that this resolution does not deal with the cost of government; it deals entirely with the subject of a tax base, in an attempt to get rid of the out-moded tax system we have in Pennsylvania.

We are trying to pass a resolution that will create a commission inside of the Joint State Government Commission that will present to the next session of the Legislature recommendations on revenue and revenue only. It does not interfere at all with the bill previously introduced by the gentleman from Allegheny and his colleagues. I believe if the gentleman from Allegheny will study the resolution, he will withdraw his objection to immediate consideration, because the subjects do not conflict and I am sure that he, too, would like to see Pennsylvania on a sound tax basis.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I am sorry that I must differ with the minority leader of my party here on this very important resolution. There is no use of our going into a study of the sources of income and expenditures of all state moneys unless we do the job from all levels of government. They are all related. I regret very much that I overlooked the fact that Senator Blass is a co-sponsor of the other bill I mentioned which was presented.

They are all related and there is no use studying just one form of government; why not go into the counties, boroughs, townships, cities, and see about the services and the moneys they are spending there for certain services that they should not be spending.

I have pointed out before time and time again in this Senate, that the people who own homes in Pennsylvania are spending $8,000,000 for the trucking industry and nothing is done about it. We even go further in this current budget, which appropriated $4,000,000 for the Pennsylvania motor police out of new taxes instead out of the motor vehicle fund.

I do object, Mr. President, and I do not intend to withdraw my objection, because I am not for making any investigation unless it takes in all levels of government, because all levels of government are related, and that is where our money is going, because there has been a waste of money at different levels by overlapping services.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I have no desire to change the mind of the distinguished gentleman from Allegheny, but I just want to point out to him that several weeks ago there was a resolution adopted here on the floor of the Senate to refer to the Joint State Government Commission the subject of a study of the re-codification of the administrative code, which deals directly with the things the gentleman from Allegheny has been discussing.

This would be an additional study, which would deal with the fiscal picture of the Commonwealth, that portion of its governmental set-up. The purpose of the resolution was discussed at a meeting of the executive committee of the Joint State Government Commission and that is why we find bi-partisan sponsorship of the resolution, as it is to round out the study that we are trying to make.

I think the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holland, is in sympathy with what we are trying to attain. He may disagree very slightly with the modus operandi we are using—that is to get even with you oleomargarine farmers—but nevertheless we are trying to arrive at an answer to the problems the gentleman has raised and if he is disagreeing with the methods, all he is doing is delaying action, and I would suggest to him, in all fairness, that we are trying to arrive at a new fiscal picture for the Commonwealth through the resolution just presented. We already have a resolution on the books giving the Joint State Government Commission the right to study, with a view to re-codifying the administrative code, and I think this would round out the picture.

I am sorry I did not have the good sense to submit the resolution to the gentleman before it was presented, so that he would have had opportunity to study it.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I will submit to the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, what they did in New York tomorrow and let him make a study of it, and then maybe he will withdraw his resolution and accept mine.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this debate, but it reminds me of years ago when, in the halls of the Legislature, there was a very outstanding fighter for the people, at least until recently, when an analysis was made of his efforts in the House. Those of us who were interested in legislation pertaining to the ordinary citizens thought he was quite a champion, but somehow or other, every time there was a bill up to increase workmen's compensation rates he was always fighting for a few more dollars than what they were given in the bill at the time, and as a result of his great fight for the people, the workmen never received any increased benefits for a period of twenty-three years in the state of Pennsylvania. I am wondering if the gentleman from Allegheny is not losing sight of the fact that the subject he wants to cover could never be covered in toto by the Joint State Government Commission in a period of less than five years, and without an appropriation of less than half a million dollars.

We are only attempting to set forth for the next General Assembly a program of taxes that will take into consideration the various tax levels and the various taxable items in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The matter of developing a method for spending that money is another problem, and deserves equal consideration.

However, with his objection so firmly entrenched in his breast, there is nothing we can do but bow to the inevitable.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I have been asked to explain this bill and I will attempt to do so.

As I understand it, under the present law, vacancies in the offices of election officers, which include Judges of election and inspectors, after a primary, are now taken care of in a way that is rather cumbersome, in fact it does not take care of them at all, because what is now done is, if a man dies after he has been nominated, his name remains on the ballot and he is voted for even though he is dead and then afterwards it is necessary to go into court and petition the court to fill the vacancy, and that applies to withdrawals or removals from the vicinity.

What this bill does is to provide that the committee-men in the division, and there are thirteen hundred divisions in Philadelphia, are an election committee, and they may fill such a vacancy and it can be taken care of in the neighborhood, where it should be taken care of, without going through this cumbersome procedure, which I have just outlined.

This is to correct a situation caused by the inadequacy of the present law.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I have listened with great attention to the explanation of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart. Why not embody a brief statement reflecting that explanation in the bill, and there will be no doubts as to the purposes of this bill? As the amendment now reads, something remains unsaid. That is the reason why my colleagues on the minority side are somewhat fearful lest there is some hidden motive in this bill, and for that reason I would suggest to the proponents of the bill that they refer it back to committee for the purpose of amendment so as to incorporate in this bill the reason why the amendment is suggested.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may we be at ease a moment?

(The Senate was at ease.)

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 80, as follows:

An Act declaring and adopting the song "Pennsylvania" by a Pennsylvanian Gertrude Martin Rohrer as the State song of the Commonwealth

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The song "Pennsylvania" the melody and words thereof copyrighted in one thousand nine hundred thirty-one by a Pennsylvanian Gertrude Martin Rohrer the composer of the music and words is hereby adopted as the State song of Pennsylvania and shall be the official song for all public purposes

The words of said song are as follows

Verse I

Pennsylvania my native state to you we pledge our devotion

Pennsylvania our loyalty is boundless as the ocean

Verse II

Pennsylvania we thrill with pride to be your loyal descendants

Pennsylvania all hail to you the foundation of independence

Refrain

Pennsylvania Pennsylvania strong and true

Pennsylvania Pennsylvania hear our song to you

There is beauty in your mountains

There is peace upon your hills

And where-e'er I roam my only home is Pennsylvania

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the sponsor what the melody is of this bill.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Senator Snowden, answer the question?

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, in answer to the request for the melody of this song, I am unable to do that, I am not a songster, but I can assure my worthy colleague this is a very lovely song, the melody is right. We heard it down in the committee room the other day and I think it is well worthy of being our state song.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I was all prepared to sing the song but I find now I have a copy of "Pennsylvania, my Pennsylvania," and that is not the song that we are studying and voting for this afternoon. I also have a copy here of another song called "Rolling Hills of Pennsylvania."

Mr. President, all three of these songs were written by people in my county and I am in an awful pickle, because I have here a letter from the author of one of these songs and I would like to read to the Senate what he says about this song.

"Dear John: Confirming our conversation of this afternoon while you were busy at my expense in that chair, I want to remind you of that state song.

"Pennsylvania My Pennsylvania" is far superior to any song that has been composed, inasmuch as it is singable and is strictly a word picture of Pennsylvania."

Mr. President, I have another letter from another boy in my county and he says his is the finest song ever written and Pennsylvania should adopt it because everybody could sing it.

Mr. President, I am not going to vote on this bill. I am just going to sit here and let the Senate decide which one of my constituents is going to have the honor of creating the official song for Pennsylvania, and I am proud of the fact that of the three songs that have been written the authors all come from Westmoreland county.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will take judicial notice of the fact that Westmoreland county is a part of Pennsylvania, no matter whether they have produced three songs or one song.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, in order that there may be a public hearing held upon Senate Bill No. 644 and Senate Bill No. 190, I move that Senate Bill No. 190, on second reading entitled:

An Act to repeal certain statutes relating to oleomargarine butterine or similar substances manufactured wholly or partly from fats oils or oleaginous substances

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the majority leader.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TALLMAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Will the gentleman from Lehigh tell the Senate why this bill is being committed to the Committee on Agriculture, when it originated in the Committee on State Government.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, the reason for that is, first of all, I am not acquainted with what may have prompted the referral of this bill to the Committee on State Government originally. However, the Committee on Agriculture is the committee which is sponsoring a public hearing on the oleomargarine question, and for that reason, sir, this bill is being recommitted to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Lehigh.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Lehigh permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. TALLMAN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, is the gentleman from Lehigh acquainted with the fact that there is a bill containing the same provisions as Senate Bill 190 in committee at the present time, and that bill could be used in a public hearing and still be effective as far as ascertaining the will of the people concerning the provisions of Senate Bill 190.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I am not aware of the fact that there is another bill that does the same thing, other than what I have heard here on the floor of the Senate this afternoon.

However, Mr. President, up to this point, on this matter of consideration of the oleomargarine question, it appears that Senate Bill 190 has been the bill upon which all of the attention has been centered as a bill for revoking the existing law or repealing it, concerning oleomargarine, and for that reason, Mr. President, it seems fair and right that this bill should be the bill that will be re-committed with the other bill so that they may both be considered by the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I just want to call to the attention of the Senate the fact that this is what is known as legislative strategy. You first have on the calendar a bill that seems to fulfill the desire of the people who are interested in unrestricted trade in oleomargarine, but suddenly there is opposition to this particular type of legislation, so another bill is introduced which confuses the issue. In order not to face the question squarely and fairly, as to how each individual Senator would vote upon complete restriction or complete repeal of the restrictions on oleomargarine, as to its sale, wholesale and retail, we find now upon the Senate calendar another bill and so, under the guise of sending both bills back to committee to be studied, we now have before us this motion to recommit.

That motion to recommit must not confuse the people of Pennsylvania. This motion to recommit Senate Bill 190 is a vote for or against this particular piece of legislation. This has happened so many times in the past that I believe I am positive in my position that this is a vote to determine the fate of this particular bill; it will go back to committee in conjunction with another bill, but from that committee where it is now being sent, most of the men in the Senate know that it will not emerge, because that committee is the Committee on Agriculture and the agricultural members of this Senate are unalterably opposed to lifting the restrictions, and to the provisions of Senate Bill 190.

Therefore, Mr. President, when we are voting, I am going to ask for a roll call so that each man may be tallied according to his desires for or against this legislation. No amount of explanation to the contrary, Mr. President, will alter the fact that this is a vote for or against restriction or non-restriction on oleomargarine.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I have become rather amazed, week after week, when the gentleman from Westmoreland stands up on the floor of this Senate and dictates what the terms shall be upon which a roll call shall be taken, and I think it is time that it is stopped.

Mr. President, I want to say to you that, despite this ultimation, there is a very serious honest difference of opinion about this oleomargarine question on this side, and maybe if the same integrity of approach to this subject were used on the other side there might be more difference of opinion.

It is a strange thing, Mr. President, it seems to me, that this ultimatum should have been delivered by the gentleman from Westmoreland at this time in stating his reasons for indicating why this bill should remain on the calendar, because I remember just several weeks ago, when the minority in this chamber took a very strong position on the recommitment of certain labor bills for the purposes of a public hearing, in spite of the fact that there were in several committees of this Senate, at that time, bills dealing with the same subject matter, and it seems to me that in this request for a roll call is the implied inference that there is no integrity in the position of the members of this side and that this bill is being recommitment definitely, because the gentleman from Westmoreland says so, for the purpose of killing it, which is simply a matter of using a situation whenever it best suits his convenience and the convenience of the minority.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, under no circumstances would I want this roll call to be taken, as the gentleman from Lehigh says, under the terms as laid down by the minority leader.

There is an honest difference of opinion, as the majority leader has said, with regard to the merits of Senate Bill 190. If the roll were called on Senate Bill 190 I would be perfectly willing to vote in the affirmative on that bill, and I am not alone in that position. Some of you city farmers who sit over there and attempt to put words in the mouths of people who are attempting to be honest in their opinions, sometimes get us to the place where there is such a thing as annoying us no end. May I say to the members of the minority, Mr. President, that we have the right and the courage of our convictions. We have been advised that this bill is going back to committee for a public hearing, and you can not apply oil or butter to us in an attempt to soften us up in the position we have taken. I am individually in favor of Senate Bill 190 and would vote for it, and I am repeating that for the deliberate purpose of reemphasizing it upon the record.

Mr. President, I am going to vote to recommit this bill, because we have been told there is an honest attempt to arrive at some facts and no propaganda from the other side can change that. I am in favor of, and the people of my district are in favor of working this thing out from the standpoint of the facts. I am sick and tired of the propaganda that has been spread by both sides on this question, and I think a public hearing is in order and the gentleman from Westmoreland knows you can not have a public hearing unless this bill goes back to committee.

I am going to vote for this motion to recommit this bill and I want to say, Mr. President, that does deprive me of the right of voting for Senate Bill 190 when it reappears on the calendar.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, when the gentleman from Allegheny simmers down a little bit, I might interest him in the fact that if he is interested in voting for or against Senate Bill 190 this is a good time to do it, because I am just as convinced as I have ever been of anything I have ever said on the Senate floor that this is the last time this bill will appear in its present form before the Senate of Pennsylvania.

However, I might correct the gentleman from Lehigh. He no doubt is becoming a little confused as time wears on as to the taking of dictatorial powers because I remember very clearly just recently, I think about two weeks ago, when he very rudely told the members of the minority that there would be no action upon this bill until he and the majority decided, and that our rights would be then given consideration only upon the dictates of the majority.

And so, Mr. President, considering the fact that they have decided to act, I say to them in clear-cut language that the action they are now taking is an action for or against Senate Bill 190. I do not care how you cover up the issue with any kind of protest about your innocence or about your care and worry about the people back home that are interested in this legislation. The way to prove that is to vote now, and vote now on whether this bill goes back to the Committee on Agriculture to be cremated or whether it stays upon the calendar on the floor of this Senate and be voted upon yes, or no, on the merits of the bill. Regardless of how you try to cover it up, this is a vote trying to dodge the real issue, which is a vote for or against this legislation.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair calls to the attention of the Senators the fact that there is a motion to recommit Senate Bill 190 before the Senate, and any debate should be confined to the subject of that motion.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I rise upon a matter of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Lehigh will proceed.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, while we are on this subject of dictatorial policy, and the statement which the gentleman from Westmoreland just made, it is perfectly within the province of the majority to make the kind of statement that I made several weeks ago, and, Mr. President, I will stand on it, and while we are talking about that I would like to explain why I made that statement. The gentleman will remember on that afternoon there were motions made to recommit several bills, and it happened, as I recall, that there were an equal number of Republican sponsored bills and an equal number of Democratic sponsored bills recommitment. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, did not like that procedure, and, therefore, despite the fact that there were friends of Senate Bill 190 on this side of the Senate, he decided that he would call it from the postponed calendar.

Now, Mr. President, I want to say that as long as those processes are going to take place on the other side of this Chamber, that is just how long the majority proposes to take the position that it stated the other afternoon when, out of anger and lack of respect for the decent procedures, motions of that kind and movements of that kind take place, then, Mr. President, I take it that this side of the Chamber will have the right to make statements of that kind. It seems to me, Mr. President, that the integrity of the position of the members on this side of the chamber ought to be respected with regard to the motion that is being made now.

I again say, Mr. President, no matter what the gentleman from Westmoreland says, no matter what kind of ultimatum he lays down, the position on this side of the Senate is based upon its honest intent to have this matter aired at a public hearing.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, the session is nearing a close and the Senators have been working awfully hard and blood-pressures have been going up. However, I would like to say this, Mr. President, That I have faith in the members of the Senate, on both sides.

I am going to vote in favor of re-committing this bill, together with No. 644 for a public hearing. I have faith in my fellow-members that this bill is not going to be put back to be pickled, as the common expression is. This bill is going back for an honest public hearing and I will bet all the tea in China, and that is a lot of tea, that Senate Bill No. 190 will be heard from when it comes back to the floor, and it will, or the other bill will be amended to suit the people who use oleomargarine in the state of Pennsylvania. They are entitled to it and they are going to get it.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise on a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland will proceed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think it is time the record should be kept straight about the question that the motive behind Senator Barr's calling up Senate Bill 190 is not a matter of proper consideration of the Senate. However, if anybody questions those motives, that is entirely his right, but no one can say that the gentleman from Allegheny was not acting in accordance with the rules of the Senate of Pennsylvania; he was calling up in its proper turn a bill on the postponed calendar, which is the right and prerogative of every member of this senatorial body.

However, if the majority feels in its power and in its strength as a voting group that they can set aside the rules and rights that are guaranteed to minority groups, then the only thing we can do is to take advantage of every legislative trick that we know, every legislative trick that we have learned through the many years of being in the minority fighting for our places in the Senate, in order that the people may hear both sides of every question and every problem that comes before this body. It has always been the historic prerogative of minorities to be heard, Democrats and Republicans alike.

All legislative bodies must act at times according to the dictates of the moment and therefore we find ourselves, in many instances, doing the things that have been taught to us by the now majority party when they were in the minority. You see, Mr. President, most of the members of this side of the Senate were of the majority party when the present members on the other side were in the minority, and the tricks we are now endeavoring to put into force are those legislative acts we learned from them. If they were bad teachers, if they were not the kind of instructors we should have followed, we should have known that long ago because, Mr. President, we do not like to be condemned for doing what our instructors taught us.

And I may say to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Farrell, that he is entirely safe in betting all the tea in China because he does not own all the tea in China.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I rise on a matter of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I wish to ask the minority floor leader whether he means legislative maneuvers or tricks.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I think quite often we, as individuals, are subject to comment and criticism for acts that the entire Senate or a majority of the Senate takes as a body. It may be that back in the city of Philadelphia, if this bill is re-committed and does not see the light of day again, that I, as a member of this body, will be criticized by my constituents for having killed the bill.

Therefore I would like the record to note that if I had the opportunity of voting for the bill I would vote for Senate Bill 190, Printer's Number 70.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a matter of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, several weeks ago, when I called this bill up from the postponed calendar, I did so, which was my right as a member of the Senate, and at that time the Juggernaut Republican leader told me that this bill would be acted upon when they felt like acting upon it.

Unfortunately the newspapers in writing this up put me in the light that I had killed the bill. In other words, one of the Pittsburgh papers noted that I had called the bill from the postponed calendar and therefore the bill was dead.

For that reason I want the record to note that if I had a chance to vote for Senate Bill 190 I would vote in the affirmative.

Secondly, Mr. President, I would like to call to the attention of my colleague from Allegheny, Senator Walker, now that his blood pressure has gone down, that he will have no more chance of voting on this bill than flying because he is not a member of the Committee on Agriculture and this bill will never see the light of day again.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I do not want to delay the proceedings here, but it seems to me that what the whole thing boils down to is this, that Senator Dent has certainly missed the point. The point is that the people have requested a public hearing on Senate Bill 190, and how are we to allow them to come to this hearing and say, "Here you citizens of Pennsylvania, we are high and mighty Senators, you can not come here for a public hearing on Senate Bill 190, we are going to give you another bill to hold a public hearing on, Senate Bill 250."

Mr. President, that is exactly like Nazism and it will not work.

And the question recurring,
Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—33.

Becker,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Wade,
Berger,	Hare,	Ruth,	Wagner,
Blass,	Heyburn,	Scarlett,	Walker,
Carr,	Homsher,	Snowden,	Watson,
Chapman,	Kephart,	Stevenson,	Wilson,
Crider,	Letzler,	Tallman,	Wolfe,
Crowe,	Lord,	Taylor,	Wood, L. H.,
Doehla,	Mahany,	Tyler,	Wood, T. N.,
Farrell,

NAYS—14.

Barr,	Holland,	Leader,	Stiefel,
Dent,	Jaspan,	Rahausen,	Tarr,
DiSilvestro,	Klein,	Rosenfeld,	Woodring,
Haluska,	Lane,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 243, on second reading, entitled:

An Act relating to the sale, transfer, pledge, and assignment of and liens upon accounts receivable arising out of contracts in order to promote trade and commerce by facilitating the sale and pledge of accounts receivable and to eliminate fraud in connection with secret assignments.

be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 253, entitled:

An Act concerning liens of factors on merchandise and on any proceeds arising from the sale of such merchandise and defining "factor" as one that lends or advances money on the security of merchandise whether or not employed to sell merchandise

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, perhaps at the risk of being misunderstood, and regretting deeply the taking of even a single moment now which is so precious, but more so than anything else because one of my closest friends I believe, is present in the Senate in the interest of this bill, and I am opposed to it, however, I do not propose to take the time now because it would not be right to state my objections because they are from the country standpoint and from the rural standpoint and from the experience of a long half century or more of country practice. I may be wrong.

I do not want to say today, on second reading, my arguments against Senate Bill 253, but you have the right to know that when it comes to a final vote, that under the present circumstances I feel I can not vote for this bill.

I would request that those who are for it would sit down and analyze it from my standpoint and that those who are concerned in the Senate, Democrats and Republicans, read the bill, beginning with definitions and see what it does.

I think in talking a little on the subject I indirectly mentioned the word mortgages or personal property but that is not so, that is not in here, because the definitions are "merchandise," "factor" and "borrower."

The main thing is Section 2 "factor's lien." The idea is to have an agreement and make a lien and put it on record in the prothonotary's office in every county in the state. What papers go on record, other than the agreement? No one is for it and it has to be properly exemplified and those people are going to manufacture them. I think I have a different way of doing it, but they do not know what there is in it, and a number of things it does are so unusual that I feel that no such paper should be recorded in the prothonotary's office. It interferes with the management of the office. It may be a lien but the idea is perhaps to have manufacturers out in the country, or the people who furnish the money for it, will have a first lien or advantage or disadvantage over the other fellow and it might be that I am wrong but for fifty-four years I have represented a national bank—it was not always a national bank but through its different vicissitudes and traveling along the line of doing business out in the country, it has been a bank to serve the people in the community, and for that reason they had to have some attorney and I was the only one there and all that time I have been the attorney for it.

In every matter of this character where a lien comes along that bank and perhaps a few others have asked as to what I think of it and I have always in the past advised against a chattel mortgage—this is not a chattel mortgage, it is an agreement—but when you read what kind of agreement it is and what it covers and where it goes, up beyond a lien, and it is supposed to be a lien on personal property.

I am going to say a few words when the time comes but for the purposes of saving time I will not do this today, to give everybody a chance to prove I am wrong from top to bottom and I assure you that I do not wish to take up any more time, unless necessary, and unless you give me some good reason for it when the time comes I am going to vote "no".

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 7th, 1947.

May 20th, 1946 marked the passing of Major General Edward C. Shannon at his residence in Columbia, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, at the age of seventy-five years. Stricken on Christmas Eve previously with a heart ailment, General Shannon lost strength steadily until he succumbed.

General Shannon was Lieutenant-Governor and the presiding officer of this Body from 1931 to 1935 during Governor Pinchot's second term. His incumbency saw four Legislative Sessions in addition to two regular terms which lasted five months each or a total of one hundred and fifty-nine legislative days.

General Shannon sought the Republican Gubernatorial Nomination in 1934, running second to the Honorable William A. Schnader, Attorney General in Governor's Pinchot's Cabinet in a primary field of sixteen candidates.

Born in Phoenixville, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, June 24th, 1870, a son of the late Frederic Hallman and Janet Murray Shannon. He was educated in the public schools of that community. As a young man, however, he left his home community and launched upon his long illustrious career, first as a blast furnace superintendent and Chemist at Marietta in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

April 10th, 1889, he enlisted in the 4th Infantry, Pennsylvania National Guard as a Private. Seven years later he rose to the rank of Captain. During the Spanish-American War he led Company C, 4th Infantry, to Puerto Rico where it was engaged in active service. He was mustered out November 16, 1898.

Meanwhile General Shannon had become Manager of the Triumph Manufacturing Company.

In addition General Shannon was Treasurer and General Manager of the Lucas Manufacturing Company and shortly after his return from the first World War he was elected Prothonotary of Lancaster County. He was a staunch Republican.

Returning to Columbia he was married on April 22nd, 1899, to Miss Maude C. Lucas. There was a daughter born of the marriage, Miss Janet C. Shannon, now the wife of Wilbur C. Varian, residing with their two sons at Coatesville, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Shannon predeceased the General by approximately three years.

He served along the Mexican Border in 1916-17 as a full Colonel in command of the 4th Infantry at the beginning of World War I.

When the 7th Pennsylvania Division was reorganized into the 28th Infantry Division, he was given command of the 111th Infantry Regiment. With his Regiment he landed in France May 5th, 1918 and almost immediately went into combat action where he earned the nickname of "Two Yard Shannon" in keeping that distance ahead of his front line troops. He was cited for bravery and won the Distinguished Service Medal for "exceptionally meritorious and distinguished service" in the Champagne-Marne offensive. With his Regiment he served in five separate campaigns in France and he brought his troops back home in April 1919.

On reorganization of the Guard in Pennsylvania, he was commissioned a Brigadier General in command of the 56th Infantry Brigade. Later in 1933 he was promoted to Major General and assigned to command the 28th Infantry Division and the Pennsylvania National Guard. At that time he was serving the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as Lieutenant-Governor but after some arrangements he was permitted to hold both offices of Lieutenant-Governor and Major General, drawing only one salary. Later special legislation was passed permitting him an extra five years as Commander of the 28th Division and the National Guard. He ended his military career at Indiantown Military Reservation on June 24th, 1939, after fifty years of service.

During World War II General Shannon served on a draft board in Lancaster County.

For twenty-five years General Shannon was President of the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Soldiers' Orphans School at Scotland, Pennsylvania. He was a trustee of the Valley Forge Military Academy and served as Chairman of the Valley Forge Historical Commission and also as Chairman of the State Military Reservation Commission.

General Shannon was President of the Columbia Water Company and the First National Bank of Columbia. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Columbia Hospital. He was a Director of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce and a past President of the Columbia Rotary. He was a Director of the Columbia Red Cross Chapter, a member of Zembo Shrine, Sojourners, Columbia Lodge No. 286 F. and A. M., Royal Arch Masons, Columbia Chapter 224, Knights Templar Commandry No. 34, a member of the Hamilton Club at Lancaster, Pennsylvania, the Elks, the United Spanish War Veterans, the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Tall, gray and handsome, General Shannon was a colorful character. On a balmy Saturday afternoon in April, in 1941, during the heat of my first campaign for State Senator from the District in which we were both voters, I planned to make a dozen or more calls in Columbia and I chose to call at General Shannon's residence first. I found him at home alone with his wife, having just finished his dinner. He was in a contemplative and reminiscent state of mind and Mrs. Shannon joined us in the drawing room. I made no other call in Columbia on that Saturday afternoon. Late afternoon found me bidding adieu after a three hours' visit as interesting and soul-touching as I have ever experienced. The friendship of his County of Lancaster with my County of Lebanon came in for long discussion. The loyalty of my County to him in his campaign for the Republican nomination for Governor, when other counties failed him, came in for further discussion. He discussed the result of his candidacy with no rancor but made no pretense of concealing the fact that his disappointment over his defeat was unassuaged. A typical American family Mrs. Shannon would interrupt him frequently in his reminiscences to correct him, as devoted wives are wont to do. I look back to the visit as one that was crowded to the top with human interest and it raises in me high emotion that it has fallen to my lot to eulogize him today.

In Lebanon County there has been erected and constructed a splendid Facility for the rehabilitation of Veterans of the Second World War. I can think of nothing more fitting than that this Facility should be named for this distinguished soldier who lived and died in the District in which the Facility is located. My colleagues have been very kind to me in permitting me to offer this Resolution and I now propose that it be Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Director of the Veterans' Administration of the United States be requested to name and designate the new veterans' Facility and Hospital in Lebanon County as "The General Edward C. Shannon Hospital" in his honor and everlasting memory.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, as a physician I desire to discuss House Bill 1062. I am speaking on a non-partisan basis and from the standpoint of a doctor's knowledge and experience in the treatment of suffering human beings.

The bill as now written permits anyone to be appointed the Secretary of Mental Health.

The question of improving the health services to the people of this Commonwealth has come to the foreground so emphatically that the administration of any health program requires careful scrutiny, on the part of legislative bodies, in order that they can assure the citizens the best type of service. Therefore, in the administration of these programs proper qualifications of those in charge should be included in any measure in order to guarantee the people of this Commonwealth the highest type of service. This cannot be accomplished unless the administrative authorities are properly qualified.

To say that physicians are not good administrators is not exactly correct. There are many men in this state who have proven themselves to be not only good doctors of medicine, but excellent administrators.

The pre-professional educational requirements of physicians today is just as high as any other profession or business. Physicians are constantly in contact with individuals in all walks of life. With their educational background and practical experience they can absorb in a very short time considerable administrative ability, and at least have sufficient knowledge to employ individuals who are capable, and hold them responsible for carrying out a high quality of service, in an administrative capacity.

The patients of mental institutions are the first consideration. They should be provided with the very best facilities for their physical comfort and medical treatment. This can be accomplished only under the supervision of a properly trained individual, namely, a doctor of medicine, who is otherwise qualified.

At the present time the bureau of mental health is in the Department of Welfare. This bureau has practically the same administrative authority as provided for in House Bill 1062. The bill, is to a large extent, a rewriting of the "Mental Health Act". At present, Dr. H. A. Bengs, is chief of the bureau. He graduated with high honors from the University of Pennsylvania with an "A. B." in 1927 and an "M. D." in 1930. He spent ten years as clinical director at the Warren State Hospital. The doctor has been chief of this bureau for the past three years. He is a man properly trained, and is a very capable psychiatrist and administrator. His salary is about $7,500 a year. This is a reduction of several thousand dollars from that which the previous incumbent—Dr. Sandy—received.

Until about 1931 there were about sixteen clerks in this bureau. At the present time there is a reduction to eight clerks—this small group of capable, energetic individuals carried on their shoulders the responsibility of this bureau since 1932 and during the trying period thru the second world war, when personnel was difficult to obtain and work greatly increased.

It does not seem to me to be conducive to a high state of morale for these individuals to work under the cloud of having a change in administration concerning which they have very little to say, and which may completely revolutionize the whole set-up and retard the present plans of this bureau in the Department of Welfare.

This bureau, together with the Department of Property and Supplies, is charged at present with an expansive building program and the training of personnel. They are all ready to proceed and should not be interrupted. I cannot see the necessity for creating a new Department of Mental Health at this time. The immediate efforts should be to increase the efficiency of all the departments and bureaus, administering health programs. This can be accomplished by increasing salaries, obtaining more and efficient personnel, and giving them some assurance of security in their positions. This will be more economical and more rapid in the consummation of better service to the people of our state.

When the efficiency of the departments administering health services to the people of this state is increased, it may be possible to place all health activities in a strong and efficient—Department of Health—but until such time I am opposed to the creation of any new departments—because, in my opinion—it will be more expensive and difficult to tear down our present structure and build an entirely new one, than it would be to improve and remodel our present one.

May I repeat, let us proceed as rapidly and as economically as possible to improve the services for these unfortunate individuals, which in the past we all know have been sadly neglected. Let us do this in an orderly, practical manner by increasing the efficiency of present administrative bodies, giving them the tools to do the job.

I have the utmost respect for the Governor and were he able to succeed himself and I felt sure this was not a political football I would go along, but when you remove this qualification from the head of this department, I think it is unfair and I don't think it would function. When you have an Attorney General appointed he must be a lawyer, and there are specifications which should be met by the head of this Department.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SARRAF. I, therefore Mr. Speaker, move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee of Public Health and Sanitation for further study and possible amendments.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this motion.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Montgomery desire to debate the bill or the motion to recommit?

Mr. BRUNNER. I think I just desire to debate the motion to recommit. Mr. Speaker, on second thought, I would like to answer the objections of the gentleman from Allegheny, Dr. Sarraf, and at the same time oppose the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Dr. Sarraf, withdraw his motion temporarily to recommit so that the merits of the bill can be discussed at this time?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT WITHDRAWN

Mr. SARRAF. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I have listened with great interest to the statement of the gentleman from Allegheny, Dr. Sarraf. House Bill 1062 is the result of a long, careful study by a committee of citizens of Pennsylvania who have taken into consideration the mental health and mental hospital set up in the State. After the bill was prepared there was serious consideration given to the qualifications of the secretary of this new department.

I agree with the gentleman that it is an important project; I agree with the gentleman that this bill is far reaching and that in establishing a separate department it is only to be done because of our profound hope that in so doing the welfare of the forty thousand inmates of the various institutions in Pennsylvania will be benefited.

Early this year I had an opportunity to make an independent survey of the mental hospitals with regard to certain features. I inquired of the Superintendents of the various hospitals as to the types of admissions in 1945 and 1946. I inquired and obtained other information which has had the result of leading me to the personal conclusion that it is vitally necessary that these hospital facilities come under another department devoted to the administration of the welfare of the patients.

By coincidence this bill was given to me for introduction, and I take considerable pride in that fact because I believe firmly in what it seeks to do.

I likewise believe that when a separate department of mental health is created that the welfare of the forty thousand patients will be greatly benefitted. I do not agree with the gentleman that every secretary who is a member of the cabinet under this bill must have professional qualifications. I would have no objection to a medical man being Secretary of Mental Health if I thought that in so doing the best interests of these patients would be served, but we need a good business man, we need a good administrator, we need a man who is able to run all these institutions for the benefit of the patients, and I sincerely present to you the conclusion that it is not vitally necessary that a doctor of medicine be Secretary of Mental Health, and for that reason ladies and gentlemen, I ask you to support this measure.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Montgomery whether I understand correctly that this is to create a new department and a new cabinet head under the Administrative Code?

Mr. BRUNNER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TURNER. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I am in hearty accord with the objectives of this bill, as I think we must all be, however, I differ on the creation of a new department in the state government.

There has been a necessity for years under our state government to streamline and reduce the number of departments. We have so many now that the cabinet members can hardly find room in the rooms set aside in the executive offices for the purpose of a meeting. As far back as 1933 we tried to streamline this state government, and to consolidate certain functions in order that we might reduce the number of agencies and reduce overlapping functions.

I came into this Legislature shortly after the Department of Welfare was created, and I have seen it grow by stupendous strides. During my time in this Legislature we created a new department of Public Assistance for which I could see no use. I believe that instead of creating new departments we ought to study our state government to the end that we might reduce the number of departments, setting up divisions and bureaus within a large department headed by a real executive, each division and bureau being headed by the technical experts that are necessary to carry out the functions.

I know that a very great many fine people in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have studied this problem and want to see this bill passed, but on the other hand I cannot be unmindful as a member of the Appropriations Committee, and as a member of this Legislature who has studied its fiscal affairs, that we have a mounting cost of government until today we are having to use expedient measures in the matter of sources of taxation to create revenues in order to carry on our functions.

Every time you create a new department of government, whether you intend it or not, it grows like a snowball, it increases in size, each has its separate auditors and accountants, each has its separate public relations department and each has several functions that overlap, and in the end costs the State a great amount of money.

In 1933 we had hoped to reduce the cost of the executive branch of our government by ten million dollars, and I am confident that if we would attempt to streamline it today, if we would bring into executive position men of wide executive experience to head our departments and bureaus, leaving to the technicians, the experts and the professionals the operation of the bureaus and divisions under them, that we could effect the saving that is so sorely needed by the Commonwealth.

You are going to face in the next two bienniums the need for at least one to two hundred million dollars more money than you need in this biennium.

We have need for a tremendous program for the mentally ill. We know that there are forty-two million dollars now that would have to be transferred to this department, and that is only the beginning of this mental health program. Therefore, one of the ways by which we can get money to help carry on the service which the people of the Commonwealth demand should begin at home by streamlining our state government, because as soon as you create a department it becomes tremendously difficult, as I found out in 1933, to try to dislodge them from the vested interest which they seem to hold in their different departments and bureaus and divisions.

Each one comes before our Committee and say, "It's all right to cut the schools, but not agriculture." Then the schools would come in and say, "It's all right to cut agriculture but don't cut the schools." Welfare would say, "You can't cut welfare; cut it over in Mines and Mining or in Labor and Industry or some other place." We will never get these people out of that position unless we streamline our state government. The place to start that is right here in declaring that we will not have any more departments, that we will not have any more cabinet heads until we have tackled the job of streamlining. For that reason I am going to support the motion which the gentleman from Allegheny will make.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I yield to Mr. Andrews who may want to talk on the bill. Is my motion in order?

The SPEAKER. Unless the gentleman from Cambria desires to be recognized.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to discuss the motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Dr. Sarraf.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for further consideration and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, over the years I have frequently found myself in disagreement with the Committee on public health legislation of the Medical Society of the state of Pennsylvania, and I had always hoped that the time would come when I could be in agreement with some of the proposals that that association makes. So when I hold in my hand a letter from a spokesman of that association who suggests that this bill either be sent back to committee or defeated in its present form I am glad to give consideration to that request.

The Committee in charge of this bill may have had a good measure, but for some reason that I cannot understand they permitted their front to be broken at a critical point. Indeed they permitted their front to be broken at two critical points.

The bill as originally framed to my mind correctly specified that the qualifications of the proposed Secretary of Mental Health be that he "shall be a doctor of medicine and shall have had at least ten years experience as a practicing physician in the treatment of mental diseases and administration of mental hospitals and mental health programs and shall be eligible for certification as a diplomate of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology."

I submit to you gentlemen of the House that if you are creating a Department of Mental Health that the bill correctly describes the sort of person that should head it, and that it was a grievous error to delete those specific scientific qualifications from what should be one of the noblest experiments this Commonwealth has undertaken.

Now, I submit to you further that you are creating a bureau of Mental Health without any place to put it, and you are demolishing a functioning bureau without having the trained personnel with which to equip your department of mental health.

Prudence would require that at least you see to it that this bureau continues to function at high speed and with high paid personnel until such time as you have a place to put your department of mental health.

Further, Mr. Speaker, there is to my mind at the present time another crippling amendment in this bill, put in there at our last session as a result of concessions to a very estimable group of people who have their own notions, but when you amended this bill, this mental hospital bill to take care of a particular constituency you opened the door to no one knows what kinds of evil, because I say to you if one religious group on religious grounds can start their own mental health institution, any other religious group on religious grounds can do the same thing it will come about that a very considerable portion of your treatment program is in the hands of the unskilled rather than the hands of those who represent modern science.

However, it is because of the fact primarily that the present bill deletes the qualifications that the head of the Department of Mental Health should hold, and because there is not as yet any place to put a Department of Mental Health that I support the motion to recommit this bill for correction and further study.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise in opposition to this motion. I think that as a result of this committee's study to which I referred earlier this afternoon, composed of lawyers, judges, doctors, physiatrists and prominent citizens who studied the Welfare Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—and I am quoting from the testimony at the public hearing, and as a result of this study decided that a separate Department of Mental Health was needed, and that Pennsylvania would do well in the serious situation it has at hand to take the lead along with New York, Massachusetts and Michigan to have separate departments.

I agree with the gentleman from Cambria that it was unfortunate that an amendment had to be introduced into this bill to protect one worthy organization, which may permit others to profit by it, but I submit that with proper administration that is secondary. The prime thing is a proper administration of the separate Department of Mental Health in Pennsylvania for the good of the thousands of inmates of these institutions.

I think this committee's findings are correct, that a separate Department is necessary. I think that a good administrator at the head need not be a physician, and for that reason I ask that the membership of this House vote down this motion.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Was not the definition of the qualification of the men who should head this Department of Mental Health framed by the friends of the measure?

Mr. BRUNNER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. BRUNNER. May I add in explanation, however, that one of the framers was a former Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, Owen J. Roberts, who was acquainted with this provision being deleted before the amendment was prepared and inserted in the bill.

Mr. FISS. Mr. Speaker, I merely want to raise the question as to the recommitment of the bill to Public Health and Sanitation.

The Committee on State Government had a very thorough discussion of this measure. Now, why we should recommit a bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation when the bill was originally referred to the Committee on State Government, I cannot understand, because certainly the Committee on State Government is thoroughly familiar with all the things incorporated in this bill. So it would seem grossly unfair to the Committee on State Government now to recommit this bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation. I hope that the Members will support the Committee on State Government, who were willing to sit for a number of hours in discussion of this measure.

Mr. SARAFF. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the remarks of the Chairman of the Committee on State Government. I am very sorry. I should have said to recommit to the Committee from which it came.

The SPEAKER. The chair would like to remind the gentleman that the Chairman of the Committee on State Government is the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Watkins. The gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss is a very good member.

Mr. SARAFF. Mr. Speaker, that was no attempt to bury the bill. The intention on my part when I spoke as a physician, was to keep this politically free as possible.

As I stated before, if the Governor could succeed himself, I have the utmost faith in the appointments made by this Governor, I feel sure that he will appoint an individual, even though it is bad legislation to go through this House that a cabinet member need not be qualified, I would still stay with the Governor and admit that he will appoint a capable individual.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SARAFF. Mr. Speaker, in the provisions of this bill is it not true that the Secretary of Mental Health must sit in on the purchasing of various equipment and materials named under this bill?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I would say no.

Mr. SARAFF. Did the gentleman say, no? Does he not sit ex-officio with the members of this board in carrying out the projects?

Mr. BRUNNER. That is true, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SARAFF. Does the gentleman know whether in the provisions of this bill this board of seven members sits all the time, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. BRUNNER. I do not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SARAFF. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, if a problem came up which was a psychiatric problem wherein the mass transportation of patients is decided upon, if the board is not present to advise this capable administrator who is not a doctor, I just wonder what would happen. Then again if we were to transfer from another State inmates who are citizens of our State and if they were suffering from a form of dementia and were put before this Secretary of Mental Health, I wonder if he would run out and get the board to meet to see what it meant.

I think this bill, the intention of it and the study of it has gone a great deal into the field, and has its merit, but I do think as I stated before that we can do much better at present, and as my colleague, Mr. Turner, said, we can make a stronger Department of the Department of Welfare with the Mental Secretary under it than this bill in its present form.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Dr. Sarraf.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARRAF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny if under the original bill he would be qualified to be Secretary of Mental Health.

Mr. SARRAF. Under the original bill, no, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'CONNOR. I thank the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. Speaker, as a member of the State Government Committee which studied this bill and conducted the public hearing, I had the good doctor from Allegheny in mind when I insisted that we change that provision in the bill. At the hearing attended by many prominent psychiatrists of this State it was brought out very vividly that there was a scarcity of psychiatrists, particularly of the type that we have specified in the provisions of this bill, and it was freely admitted that there were other well qualified medical men who could not qualify as a psychiatrist but who would be able and efficient men to be Secretary of Mental Health. It was also emphasized in Committee, Mr. Speaker, that to hold this position as Secretary of Mental Health in the Governor's Cabinet, one need not be a psychiatrist, he need not be a specialist in the profession that he represents, to be a Cabinet Officer to my knowledge. In the time that I have served as a Member of this House we have never had a member of a local union as Secretary of Labor. We have progressed and I don't think that this bill should be recommitted to us for the reason that the question raised here was given adequate study when we had it before.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the nays appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, 24 members voting in the affirmative and 160 in the negative the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

As we continue the labors for which we have been chosen by our fellowmen, we ask, O God, that we may not be unmindful of the fact that the laws which we make must be subservient to Thy greater law. We would ask that we might not forget, O God, that the greatest teacher of all time summed this up in saying, thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and soul, thy whole strength, thy whole mind, and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Aid us, O God, that we may deal wisely and we may act prudently, and that our actions may result in those things which shall tend to the greatest good of all the people of this state. We ask it in Jesus' Name. Amen!

An Act to further amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1168, No. 294), entitled "An act to protect the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively; creating the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board, officers of the State government, and courts providing for the right of employes to organize and bargain collectively; declaring certain labor practices by employers to be unfair; further providing that representatives of a majority of the employes be the exclusive representatives of all the employes authorizing the board to conduct hearings and elections, and certify as to representatives of employes for purposes of collective bargaining; empowering the board to prevent any person from engaging in any unfair labor practice, and providing a procedure for such cases, including the issuance of a complaint, the conducting of a hearing, and the making of an order; empowering the board to petition a court of common pleas for the enforcement of its order, and providing a procedure for such cases; providing for the review of an order of the board by a court of common pleas on petition of any person aggrieved by such order, and establishing a procedure for such cases; providing for an appeal from the common pleas court to the Supreme Court; providing the board with investigatory powers, including the power to issue subpoenas and the compelling of obedience to them through application to the proper court providing for service of papers and process of the board; prescribing ing certain penalties," making it an unfair labor practice for labor organizations to deny membership to persons engaged or willing to engage in the trade or industry in which such organization is active; to discriminate against members in employment or to use membership qualifications as a means of limiting the number of employes available in the labor market.

Mr. WADE, from the Committee on Insurance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 677, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection (b) of section four hundred fifteen of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682), entitled "An act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation, supervision, and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and fire insurance rating bureaus, and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies, associations, and exchanges, including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund; providing penalties; and repealing existing laws," limiting the sources from which payments of premiums by labor unions and certain other organizations may be made.

He also, from the Committee on Insurance, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 676, entitled:

An Act to further amend section six hundred twenty-four of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 789), entitled, as amended, "An act relating to insurance; establishing an insurance department; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating to the licensing, qualification, regulation, examination, suspension and dissolution of insurance companies, Lloyds associations, reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges, and certain societies and orders, the examination and regulation of fire insurance rating bureaus, and the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and brokers; the service of legal process upon foreign insurance companies, associations or exchanges; providing penalties, and repealing existing laws," providing for licensing of excess insurance brokers in all kinds of insurance other than life.

Mr. GELTZ, from the Committee on Insurance, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 720, entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1340), entitled "An act relating to the financial responsibility of operators and owners of motor vehicles; and to make uniform the law with reference thereto; requiring owners and operators in certain cases to furnish proof of financial responsibility; providing for the suspension of operator's licenses and motor vehicle registration certificates in certain cases; regulating insurance policies which may be accepted as proof of financial responsibility; imposing duties upon the Secretary of Revenue, the State Treasurer and prothonotaries; and prescribing penalties," by changing the effective date thereof.

Mr. WOODRING, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 57, entitled:

An Act to add section three thousand seven hundred twenty-two to the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto," authorizing the sale of unused and unnecessary land and buildings dedicated to park purposes.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 108 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I call from the table Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 108, for consideration at this time.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

The resolution was twice read as follows:

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO SURVEY, INVESTIGATE AND CONSIDER THE NEEDS OF AMENDING THE MENTAL HEALTH ACT

In the Senate, March 3, 1947.

Whereas, The Mental Health Act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred twenty-three (P. L. 998), and its amendments, and other laws relating to the subject, contain numerous inconsistencies and should be carefully studied, revised, and codified in order to make them effective for their intended purposes; therefore be it Resolved if the House of Representatives concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to survey, investigate, and consider all of the laws relating to mental health, and to revise and restate completely such mental health laws in codified form, and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly, with a bill embodying a codification of the mental health laws to be introduced at the next regular session of The General Assembly.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 20 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I call from the table House Resolution No. 20, for consideration at this time.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

The resolution was twice read as follows:

TREATMENT OF ALCOHOLICS

In the House of Representatives, March 12, 1947.

Whereas, the health of the People of Pennsylvania is of primary concern to the Commonwealth; that the disease of alcoholism affects a substantial portion of its citizens; that there is evidence that the scientific treatment of alcoholics has resulted in their rehabilitation; and that there are inadequate public and private facilities for the treatment of alcoholics in Pennsylvania; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concurs), That the Joint State Government Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby directed to make a complete investigation and study of the problems relating to the physiological, psychological, psychiatric, economic and social effects of alcoholism and the treatment and rehabilitation of persons so addicted. The Commission shall gather and compile all pertinent data including clinical experiences observed and noted by existing national, State and civic bodies; and non-governmental, private and non-profit institutions and agencies; shall collaborate with Commissions of other states, and shall make a report of its findings and recommendations, especially as to institutional facilities needed to the General Assembly at its next regular session in the year one thousand nine hundred forty-nine. The Commission shall have the power to outline and report on methods for the dissemination of information to the public concerning the nature of alcoholism and the benefits arising from the scientific treatment of alcoholics.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, in the early part of this session, the gentleman from Butler, Senator Carr, the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Geltz, and I introduced a bill creating an alcoholic commission to control alcoholism in the state. This bill was written after much study. Much money was spent by the Yale Clinic studying this problem.

The resolution which has just been referred to the Joint State Government Commission is to restudy a problem that has already been settled. About eight or nine states throughout the country have followed the Yale

Clinic report. No study that the Joint State Government Commission could make would equal the study made by the Yale Clinic. It cost over one million dollars to make it, and it was over a number of years that this study was made, and the bill which was presented by Senator Carr, Senator Geltz and I was the result of that study.

Practically all those who were interested in Alcoholics Anonymous and the other groups which believe that alcoholism should be treated as a disease, favor the bill presented by us, and I do not feel that the resolution now referred to the Joint State Government Commission is in good faith, but is simply trying to pass off to another day something we should do today.

The bill which we presented was approved by numerous members of the clergy, by the medical profession, by the psychiatric groups, in fact all the groups, while the resolution just now being sent to the Joint State Government Commission has not had the approval of these groups.

Mr. President, I think we should reconsider this resolution, and consider a bill which is the outcome of much study by those people who have spent plenty of money and have used all the different sources to make a study of the alcoholic problem, not only in this state, but in all of the states.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 29 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I call from the table House Resolution No. 29, for consideration at this time.

CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTION

The resolution was twice read as follows:

LANDLORD AND TENANT

In the House of Representatives, March 19, 1947.

Whereas, The laws relating to landlord and tenant, eviction proceedings, rent control, and kindred subjects, and the amendments to such laws, contain numerous inconsistencies and should be carefully studied, revised, and codified in order to make them effective and useful for their intended purposes; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to survey, investigate, and consider all of the laws relating to landlord and tenant, eviction proceedings, rent control, and kindred subjects, and to revise and restate completely such laws in codified form, and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly with a bill or bills embodying a codification of the laws relating to landlord and tenant, eviction proceedings, rent control, and kindred subjects to be introduced at the next regular session of the General Assembly.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I am very much in favor of this resolution. However, assuming that the O.P.A. control of rents will expire by December 31, 1947, and there is every likelihood it will expire at that time, what of the intervening period from January 1, 1948 to sometime in 1949, because it seems to me that then the Governor would have to call a special session, and that would involve the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dollars, and I say we should amend this resolution to read that a report should be made some time this year.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, as I understand this resolution, it does not attempt to deal with the problem suggested by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Jaspán, at all.

The purpose of this resolution, as I understand it, is that there may be a study of the existing framework of the landlord and tenant laws covering this subject, which he, as an attorney, should realize are the ordinary subjects covered in existing landlord and tenant laws, and for that reason, since it does not attempt to cover the subject matter that the gentleman from Philadelphia is discussing, the field is wide open for anything that this session of the Legislature may want to do in connection with the subject matter he has in mind.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I am sorry, I may have heard the resolution incorrectly, and therefore I would ask that the clerk read the resolution again. It is my understanding it refers to rent controls as well as evictions.

(The resolution was again read by the Clerk.)

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I would like to vote for this resolution, but I feel it should be amended as to the effective date.

The PRESIDENT. There is a motion before the Senate.

REQUEST WITHDRAWN

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my request for consideration of the resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution will be laid on the table.

RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY LAWS RELATING TO GROUP HEALTH AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE AND GROUP LIFE INSURANCE AND REPORT ITS FINDINGS TO NEXT REGULAR SESSION

Messrs. WADE and DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, May 12, 1947.

Whereas, Under the laws regulating group health and accident insurance and group life insurance, every-day problems are becoming increasingly difficult to solve; and

Whereas, The eligibility of various groups desiring insurance coverage of this type and the rights and liabilities of both the insurers and insured under such laws are often in doubt; and

Whereas, Such existing laws and their intended aims should be carefully studied and considered for the purpose of achieving clarification thereof and adaptation to new policies and desired changes; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to survey, investigate and consider the laws relating to group health and accident insurance and group life insurance, to revise and restate such laws, and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly with bills for introduction embodying the results of its studies.

Section 9 Short Title This act may be cited as the Factor's Lien Act

Section 10 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. President, as I indicated upon the floor of this Senate yesterday I am opposing this bill. However, I call attention to the fact that it was with deep regret that I as a lawyer from out in an outlying district, I am the only one to call attention to the fact as to what this bill does to the greater proportion of the counties in this state. It is also my deep regret that there were present in the Chamber of this Senate at the time that I made those remarks some of my very best friends of long standing who really favor this bill.

This is Senate Bill 253. Everyone within the sound of my voice has a right to know what it is. Why is it that I should take the time, in the latter days of this Session, and when there are interesting entertainments ahead and time is short for other important affairs.

First I must tell you what it is. It is an act concerning liens of factors on merchandise and on any proceeds arising from the sale of such merchandise and defining "factor" as one that lends or advances money on the security of merchandise whether or not employed to sell such merchandise.

Section 1 starts out: "Definitions. In this act unless the contract or subject matter clearly indicates otherwise the following terms shall have the following meanings." I feel that I am justified, as it is well known I do not often take the time of this Senate to tell you, what those three definitions are. The word "merchandise" indicates "materials," goods in process and finished goods intended for sale, whether or not requiring further manufacturing or processing.

Now there is the definition of "factor," which is "a person, firm, partnership, bank or corporation and their successors in interest that lends or advances money on the security of merchandise whether or not employed to sell such merchandise."

The next definition is "Borrower," which is stated to be "An owner of merchandise who creates a lien in favor of a factor."

Now I comment: Who knows what merchandise may be? There is nothing to indicate that in this act. Who knows what a factor may be? It says "a person, firm, partnership, bank or corporation." Having been an attorney for quite some time, it appears to me that I should look and see if I am interested in the word "factor." It says he may be a person, and I am surely interested in persons because I have had quite a number of them in the last fifty-four years, sitting behind a desk, and in that time I have had some firms and partnerships, some very interesting ones as clients, and also banks. I wonder what Senator here can say he has represented a bank for fifty-four years, and watched it start and watched it go and attend to something for them each week in that time, and even now.

Or a corporation—anybody can get together under circumstances that were justified and were worthy and can form a corporation to do this business of being a factor. Now, is it fair, is it quite fair, to not know what a factor is? Is there anyone within the sound of my voice that is ready to say they understand what a factor is, or, I might have said before, what merchandise is under this act? They have a definition of it here in this act, but I wonder if you are prepared to describe it if you are asked about it.

The next definition is "Borrower." Who is the borrower? "An owner of merchandise who creates the lien in favor of a factor." Do you get it? An owner, a fellow who buys what merchandise. Under this proposed bill is there anybody can tell me what that merchandise is likely to be and what does he want to do? He wants to create a lien. In favor of whom? The factor. I know these gentlemen, the rest of the Senate, are not interested and I do not care, but I am standing here and talking because I feel I should observe the obligations that were put upon me when I entered this Senate and, yes, when I entered the House fifty-four years ago.

The next definition is in Section 2 "Factor's Lien." That says: "If so provided by any written agreement (please get that) with the borrower, a factor shall have a lien upon such merchandise then or thereafter in the custody or possession of the borrower as is from time to time after or contemporaneously with the execution of the said written agreement designated in separate written statements dated and signed by the borrower and delivered to the factor. Such a lien shall secure the factor . . ." (everybody else look out) and is dated, and signed by the borrower and delivered to the factor, as I said. Who is going to secure the factor for all his loans? Not just one loan, but "all his loans and advances to or for the account of the borrower, together with interest thereon, and also for the commissions, obligations, indebtedness, charges and expenses properly chargeable against or due from said borrower and for the amounts due or owing or to become due or owing upon any notes or other obligations given to or received by the factor for or on account of any such loans or advances, interest, commissions, obligations, indebtedness, charges and expenses and any renewals or extensions of such notes or obligations."

This is off the record. Here is an agreement and here is a notice that is being prepared. Now, let us follow it: In no other way could you get a true understanding of it: "Such lien shall be valid from the time of filing the notice hereinafter in this section" (listen) "time of filing the notice hereinafter in this section and in section 3 of this act, referred to, whether such merchandise shall be in existence" (the question is whether such merchandise shall actually be in existence) "at the time of the execution of the written agreement providing for the creation of the lien, or at the time of filing of such notice" (please get this, the notice is important) "or shall come into existence subsequently thereto or shall subsequently thereto be acquired by the borrower provided that there shall be posted (get this) on the door of, or in a conspicuous place at one of the principal entrances of each of the places of business at which such merchandise or any part thereof shall be located, kept or stored, the name of the factor in legible lettering in the English language" (I am so thankful for that) "and the designation of the said factor, as factor and, provided further that a notice of the lien is filed as provided in section 3 of this act stating" (get that).

Really and truly there are several sub-sections under Section 2. Here is one under (a) the name of the factor, and (b) the name of the borrower and it tells what his business is. I do wish anyone interested at all would read what that notice shall contain—names of the parties, if it is a corporation and the state under the laws of which it was organized.

Under (b) the name of the borrower (as I said) is defined.

Clause (c) is pertaining to the general character of merchandise. Get this—you are putting a lien on the general character of merchandise. What kind of merchandise? No one knows whether it is wood or gypsum where it is or where it is coming from, or whether it is good, bad or indifferent. You are asked to describe it when it is not there, "subject to a lien or which may become subject thereto"—if it is not subject now, it is to become, subject to it—and the period of time during which loans or advances may be made"—by this loan or other advance on it, you are conveying all of the property that is not even in existence or perhaps you do not know where it is or what it is like, without describing it, and from time to time advancing money because you are a factor—the rest of the people look out, the rest of the people have to find out. Where? After a while I will tell you.

Next we come to the question of amendments of the notice. This notice is important and this is what it says "amendments of the notice of the lien may be filed from time to time—" What is a notice of a lien and what is a lien? A lien is an agreement in no specific form, one which may be with or without the assistance of these terrible lawyers that we have been told about so frequently by gentlemen scattered throughout this representation.

"The notice and amendments of notice of lien shall be verified under oath by or in behalf of the factor to the effect that the statements therein contained are true to the best of the affiant's knowledge."

"Section 3. Filing." This is what I want you to get, this is what I want you to understand, why I object to this, and when you have worked as long as I have trying to please the neighborhood for miles and miles around, thirty, forty or fifty miles around, you hate to be called upon to find and keep track of the notice of a lien that is being filed—by whom, by what, when and how. "The notice of lien and any amendments thereof may be filed at any time or times after the execution of the written agreement." It must be written but it does not tell you what form or whether it should be under seal. "This agreement must be for the creation of the lien"—in the office of where and whom—"the prothonotary of each county." Now then, where do we generally have liens, when we have liens against any source—in the office of the recorder. Oh no, this is personal property and you must not have it there on something that would be almost like a personal property mortgage.

This is all very hard on these gentlemen who are taking this down and they ought to kick me. Think of it.

"... merchandise or any part thereof is at any time located or stored by the borrower and upon such filing shall be a judicial record subject to the control of the court of common pleas of said county."

Now why am I calling attention to this agreement? Because I want to show what this agreement is like. The only thing we know about the agreement and the truth of same or what it means is the notice, and the only thing the notice says is a statement of the man who borrows and the man who gives it to him, known as a factor.

Now what about this prothonotary? Did you ever ask him whether he would like to have a bill like this? Why not? He is elected by the people and is paid by the people and has to do what they tell him. What does he have to do? Now you listen to this: "The prothonotary shall mark upon each notice and amendment of notice filed with him the day and hour of filing and shall file the notice and amendments in his office for public inspection." It is not just of record, it is a notice, the notice is there and what is it? It is a paper telling you there is an agreement but it does not give you much in the way of particulars. It then goes on and says: "He shall keep a book in which he shall enter the names of the borrower and factor, the day and hour of filing, a brief description of the merchandise and the date of satisfaction of the lien." Now, who is to do all of those things? "Such book shall be indexed under the name of both borrower and factor" (and listen to this) "For filing and entering each such notice and amendment of notice the prothonotary shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents." That started out with twenty-five cents and they want all the books and the services of the prothonotary to be furnished, so they could have a lien to tie up goods that were not there yet and you did not know where they were.

Where are they going to get the money? I have not touched Section 4 yet. Where are you going to get this money for this factor? Whether the factor has it, or an individual or you may call upon the bank. Just imagine, in my little town where I have been so long, and the bank says to me "Here is a proposition we want to ask you about," and how often that happens, and they are talking about this and that and the other, but when they come to me with that I can not tell them whether there is any lien on record, and I tell them what the act is. There has been some discussion, even now, over this matter as to how it may affect them, because the one bank there that I represented so long will be asked probably about it. We do have three manufacturers of various things and it would not be limited to them, and some of them are angry.

Now, this is what I want you to get.

"Effect of filing and posting. Upon such filing and posting the lien of the factor shall be effectual on and attach to the merchandise from time to time designated in the written statements provided for in Section 2 of this act as against all claims of unsecured creditors of the borrower and as against subsequent liens of creditors, except that liens arising pursuant to the law of this Commonwealth . . ." I am not going to say any more, but there is considerable more that might be said about that section and I wish you would read it, if you will.

Section 5 relates to discharge. How are you going to get a discharge?

Section 6 is the common law lien.

Section 7 has to do with construction, it tells you how this act is to be construed.

Then there is Section 8—Constitutionality—and that did not reach me very much, although I am chairman.

And then there is Section 9, short title—"This act may be cited as the Factor's Lien Act."

Section 10. "Effective date. This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment."

This takes up eight full pages. It relates to the tying up of personal property and I am trying to tell you what kind of personal property Nobody knows where it is or anything about it. It is all done without asking the hundreds and thousands of poor lawyers who are out in the country representing banks, or anybody that has money to loan, when they come along with an act of Assembly that tells them to do this, that and the other, and to be safe, he never does anything, if he is careful, without examining the record, and when he gets down to it there is no agreement but only a notice that there is an agreement, and there is no personal property to be seen or that can be described properly, and all of those things are so uncertain that I claim that it is unfair to ask a bank to be bothered with those people who come in to do things like that.

Where do they come from? I want you to get this. If you need money at all, that is, somebody has something to sell, and you have no money, he tells you how you can get the money, so if there is a man or an institution in the vicinity, or maybe a bank, you go to them and they will maybe say yes, because they have more money than they know what to do with and some of those outlying districts have a little money now and then.

I have done this for the purpose of convincing you that I would rather have the respect of those who favor this bill and have been my warmest friends for years and years, than to have your approbation because I went along, but I can not do that because I am against this bill, because I think it is not right from my standpoint; maybe it is from the standpoint of other people but it is the equivalent of a chattel mortgage, only two or three times better because it is on an indefinite object, there is no description of the object, it is not described and you do not know where it is, and there are so many things that are unnecessary.

I am not going into the next statement at all, but I have been familiar with this particular matter since 1880, when many questions just something like this have come before me, because it so happened that the office in which I studied had something to do with the formation of the Constitution itself, and they told me something about it while I was studying law, what a chattel mortgage would do and what it would involve to take its place with a measure where it is perfectly proper and the intentions were perfectly proper.

I made those statements to the people and would like to say that it is legitimate, it can be done in a matter that does not cost so much, and makes it more secure, but not these indefinite borrowers, as we call them, they should not be induced because someone wants to sell them something that is doubtful, when there are so many doubtful things about it.

Now I am through, strange as it may seem, and I am just serving warning on this Senate and anybody else connected with it, like I served notice on the splendid young gentleman and my personal friend on the floor of the Senate when I told him what I thought of it.

I am saying that to you now, that from now on there is no need to hurry to get home the first or second week of June or even the end of September, there is no use doing any of this work unless we do what? Unless we do it right. And I confess I am too slow to read all those bills or even the very simple ones, and the bills come in here and pass first reading when they are introduced, and second reading without taking the time to read in each section what takes place, and then they are ready for passage. I am not criticizing, I am only telling you the facts as they are and I am telling you that, from now on, I do not care whether you like it or not, you are going to consider these things.

Now vote for this bill, every one of you that wants to, but I tell you in advance—no one asked me or wanted me to vote for it and no one said to me, for goodness' sake, Henry, do not do that, there was nothing like that at all, but I have done some other things to prove my loyalty to you, and to the other side of the Senate, across the aisle, and all these things I think I have proved in the last few days, and I ask only the privilege to be satisfied when I vote that I am doing something sound, according to my judgment, and not what somebody else asked me to do.

I want to thank every one of you for being so honest and attentive and careful, with all due respect to any little things that took place. I am through and you are about to vote for this; vote your own judgment and not mine.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

4 Conviction of an operator of a motor vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury or death to any person or damage to property upon the charge of failing to stop and render assistance or disclose his identity at the scene of the accident

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this is the bill with which the House has been indulging in flip-flops, that at one time provided for the revocation of a driver's license upon second conviction of having driven while drunk. Then it provided at another time, when the House changed its mind, for revocation of the driver's license when the driver had been convicted three times. Now it is back to a second conviction.

Now, in my city, Johnstown, I don't know whether legally or illegally, very frequently there are convictions in the Magistrate's court of having driven a car while drunk, and no Commonwealth charge is brought. I would like to inquire of the sponsor of this bill whether this measure applies to a conviction in a Magistrate's court where there is no Commonwealth charge and they are jailed under a city ordinance, properly or improperly, or whether it applies only to convictions on a Commonwealth charge.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stuart, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STUART. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Did the gentleman hear the inquiry?

Mr. STUART. Yes, I did, Mr. Speaker. In reply to that interrogation I have always understood that under the State law it is illegal for any municipality to fine a person for drunken driving, and that the charge on that offense must be brought under State law.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, that is as I am informed according to the Statute—that is the correct interpretation, and I presume then the message ought to be conveyed to the authorities in some of the third class cities that have been in one way or another collecting fines for drunken driving. But I understand that the gentleman's bill applies only to convictions on Commonwealth charges?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I do not understand the inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Whether this bill applies only in the case of convictions on the Commonwealth's charge?

Mr. STUART. Yes, Mr. Speaker, that would be twice on the Commonwealth charges. I might add, Mr. Speaker, that I am not an attorney, but I was a Justice of the Peace at one time, and I recall an incident in which I fined a man $100 and costs and the District Attorney called me on the carpet and told me that the conviction was strictly illegal. It had been a practice for some time, but still was not legal.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am glad to find out that there are other communities besides my own that indulge in illegal practices. I just wanted to be sure that this bill did not apply to a conviction in a magistrates' court where the municipality collected the fine and brought no Commonwealth charge.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill, Mr. Stuart.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STUART. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman whether he is aware that we have several reciprocal agreements with other states surrounding Pennsylvania?

Mr. STUART. I cannot answer that question, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know further from the gentleman whether he knows that under the law of the State of New Jersey if a man is charged with the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor he is summoned before the justice of the peace and on summary conviction is fined two hundred dollars in the State of New Jersey, whether that will be taken into consideration by the Department of Revenue in revoking a man's license under this bill.

Mr. STUART. I cannot answer for the Department of Revenue, Mr. Speaker, and I do not know.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman under the reciprocal agreement with the State of New Jersey whether a license revoked in Pennsylvania for one conviction, even though the operator has not been convicted before a jury, but by a Justice of the Peace, that some other conviction in the State of Pennsylvania will cause the license to be revoked?

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia is running far afield. This bill is not for New Jersey but for Pennsylvania, and I certainly would not attempt to answer that type of question just from my impression, because I do not know.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. Speaker, this bill is a difficult one to be against, because it has some very fine merits, but I have in my hand a revocation from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and an official notification of withdrawal of the Motor Vehicle provisions for one William M. Allen, of Philadelphia for operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, and upon information received from the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles of the State of New Jersey that this William Allen was convicted of operating the motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor in New Jersey, not by a jury, not as a result of having been found guilty by a grand jury in New Jersey, but as a result of having been haled before a justice of the peace and fined two hundred dollars.

Will this bill straighten out a situation such as that where a man can be convicted in a neighboring state by a justice of the peace and have his license revoked in Pennsylvania? I think it is a bad bill and I think this bill should be held on the calendar for possible amendment so that this provision can be stricken from it.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, this bill was designed to correct conditions in Pennsylvania. As you all know, there have been concerted attempts to legislate for the past two years to reduce the toll of accidents and deaths on the highways. We all know that a great percentage of the accidents are due to drunken driving. I have read the statistics on that and I have read that as many as twenty-five percent of the accidents are due to drunken driving. Therefore, if we can do anything at all to eliminate them we are doing something to make the roads safer for ourselves and our families and all the people. I think that all of us will agree that the drunken driver is a potential murderer, therefore I think we should do something to legislate in defense of all the people to protect them from these drunken drivers. Of course as I said before, I think the drunken driver is a potential murderer, and every day in this State someone is killed or maimed by a person under the influence of intoxicating liquor when driving a car.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Chudoff.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Mr Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman is it true that the licensing the gentleman refers to in the revocation that he has was the result of a plea of guilty before a Justice of the Peace in New Jersey?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I don't believe he plead guilty in that particular case.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Is it not the gentleman's understanding of the law of New Jersey that if a person pleads guilty the justice of the peace has the privilege of disposing of the matter, and if the person pleads not guilty the Justice of the Peace must hold the person under bail for the action of the court?

Mr. CHUDOFF. No. Mr. Speaker, the Justice of the Peace has the jurisdiction in summary convictions up to $200 in drunken driving.

Mr. O'DONNELL. Does not that person have the right of appeal from the action of the justice of the peace, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. CHUDOFF. I am not sure, Mr. Speaker. I do not know the answer to that question.

Mr. O'DONNELL. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the sponsor of this bill does not drive to the question at issue. It would be very easy for him to state in this bill that the conviction or the plea of guilty should be before the courts of the Commonwealth, and that would eliminate all of the possibility of losing a license upon a conviction before a Magistrate, either in this state or in some other state. I am quite agreed with the gentleman that if a driver is convicted or pleads guilty in our courts, all right, take his license away, but I do not believe that a loosely drawn bill should be permitted to take that license away.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I believe that Section 614 will explain some of these points that are arising. That section reads as follows:

"Upon receiving a certified record from the clerk of the court of proceedings in which a person pleaded guilty entered a plea of nolo contendere or was found guilty by a judge or jury of any of the crimes enumerated in this section the secretary shall forthwith revoke for a period of one (1) year from the date of revocation the operating privilege of any person and where such person was convicted or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere of any one of the crimes enumerated in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this section such operating privilege shall not be restored unless and until the fine and costs imposed in such cases have been fully paid. The clerk of the courts shall when such fine and costs have been so paid in any such case certify such fact to the Department of Revenue."

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

NOT VOTING—2

Najaka, Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendmens in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 114, as follows:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (App Act page 40) entitled "An act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly to make a thorough and impartial study to develop a sound and scientific financial highway program for the Commonwealth and the political subdivisions and an equitable basis for State aid to local governments for highway purposes authorizing consultation with research organizations of recognized national standing and defining its powers and duties" extending provisions thereof until next regular session of the General Assembly

Section 1 Section six of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (App Act page 40) entitled "An act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly to make a thorough and impartial study to develop a sound and scientific financial highway program for the Commonwealth and the political subdivisions and an equitable basis for State aid to local governments for highway purposes authorizing consultation with research organizations of recognized national standing and defining its powers and duties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 6 The said commission shall make a full and complete report of its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the General Assembly not later than the first day of March one thousand nine hundred [forty-seven] forty-nine together with such drafts of legislation as may be necessary to carry out its recommendations

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, on this Senate Bill 114 I rise specifically in opposition to this bill. I do so for two reasons. Two years ago there were fifty thousand dollars appropriated to study the allocation of the gas tax that might be returned to the political subdivisions. The two years of study has continued and twenty-five thousand dollars of the taxpayers' money has been expended, and as far as I can see we have gotten about $3 worth of information. I think that to continue this for two more years is just to spend another twenty-five thousand dollars and possibly get a little additional information that we might be able to get from a book, but it is merely to stall an additional two years as far as doing anything for the political subdivisions is concerned. I really can see no benefit to be derived for the taxpayers by spending this additional twenty-five thousand dollars, and I think the time is here when we may as well be honest with ourselves and with the public. If we are going to give them some of this money, give it to them; if we are not, tell them so and save the money. So I certainly oppose this bill, and I believe that a motion would be in order that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Highways.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Highways for further study and possible amendment.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to debate the merits of the bill rather than a motion to recommit.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, withdraw temporarily his motion to recommit, so that the merits of the bill might be discussed?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT WITHDRAWN

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. From the standpoint of sound policy and sound finance, Mr. Speaker, the two major problems that confront the Commonwealth are, how we are going to finance our public school system, and how we are going to develop and finance our public road system.

Both problems have been increasing in gravity over the years. We have thousand of miles of rural highway that should be improved in accordance with a definite program. We have thousands of miles of existing highway that present increasing maintenance cost.

We have many, many miles of highway that should be turned into four lane thoroughfares, and then we have other needs for additional two lane roads. The Highway Department and this General Assembly face an increasingly difficult problem. You can take a pencil and figure out the maintenance cost of maintaining highways: figure out the mileage that we need, and unless we begin to have something like a coordinated program we are less than ten years away from the point where ten cents per gallon of gasoline will not finance our highway system.

Our maintenance problem of course increases with every new mile of highway that we build. We must build many thousands of miles of highway, and ultimately increase the maintenance cost. We have been proceeding up to this time on a hit and miss basis, local pressure, lack of an over-all highway development program.

Now, it may be subject to controversy whether this particular Commission did or did not present the ultimate solution to the problem, but unless some Commission, some group representing this General Assembly, someone other than the state Highway Department is put to work solving our highway problems we are simply going to face as far as our highways are concerned, the situation that we face today with reference to our schools. We face our school problem because we puttered with it for twenty years and we never had a comprehensive over-all broad program for our public schools system, and we are heading into the same thing as far as our highway system is concerned. We lack an over-all development of a plan. In the development of that plan I say that the General Assembly should have a hand, and it is unfitting that we commit all of the highway development problems into the keeping of the Highway Department. I know of no other way to make the voice of the General Assembly vocal in the development of our highway program except to proceed by means of a legislative commission which will be at least in equal status with the Highway Department in informing this group as to what our highway needs actually are.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I would agree with the gentleman from Cambria when he says that the voice of this General Assembly should be heard. I am afraid that the only purpose of this resolution that was presented was to keep the voice of the General Assembly from being heard. I think the gentleman from Cambria was a Member of the General Assembly in 1945 when it was the will, at least on this side of the General Assembly, of the House of Representatives, that a greater portion of the one cent gasoline tax be returned to the local municipalities, the cities, boroughs and the townships. I think he well recognizes the fight that was put up and we were finally forced to agree to several amendments which certainly were not in accord with the wishes of this House. I could well go along with him in legislation such as Senate Bill 114 if I thought it was only for the purpose that he enumerates, but then I am afraid it is offered only for the purpose of another two year stall, and only for the purpose of keeping the local municipalities, the boroughs, the townships and cities, from getting back their rightful and justifiable portion of the gasoline tax, then I find myself in opposition to it. I think the only purpose of this is to further stall an equitable redistribution of the one cent gasoline tax. For that reason I join with my colleague from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, in opposing the passage of Senate Bill 114.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I call the attention of the gentleman from Allegheny to the fact that the return of one cent or the return of two cents to local municipalities is only a part of our highway problem.

One of the defects of the fight that was made at the last session in reference to the one cent was that it was not integrated with a general development program. It was another piece of patch-work, and if we now return without reference to a general program of one cent, or two cents even, to the municipalities, we have not solved our over-all highway program.

If the gentleman is in a position to tell me, or the Majority Leader, the leadership of this House is in a position to say that if this bill falls they will see to it that a bill is brought in to provide for a continuing study of our highway problem, well and good. I have no disposition to plead for the personnel of this particular Commission but I do say it will be a fatal error not to continue with the program of devising an over-all highway program for Pennsylvania.

Mr. FISS. Mr. Speaker, I feel in all fairness to the Members of this House that they should know the background and part of the history concerning this bill. Strangely enough for once I find myself in full accord with the Minority Leader, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews. If we are to solve the many problems which we have in Pennsylvania, one of which is our roads, we certainly cannot solve them by hurry-up and very imperfect legislation.

The Joint State Government Commission has tried for two years and they have employed others to make surveys. I think we have been successful over a period of four years in the Joint State Government Commission, and we have brought this Commission up to a point where it truly represents the Membership of this House during the interim.

When the Members of the Joint State Government Commission were directed to make this study, among the fifteen studies attempted by the Commission, there was only one way to do it, and that was to set up committees for each and every one of these studies. There was a committee set up to make this study. They have worked diligently in conjunction with the Department of Internal Affairs, with the Auditor General's department, with the Department of Highways and with other Department heads, especially the Highway Department, in an honest effort to give you facts and statistics from which you can judge for yourselves, whether this work is profitable or not.

I hold in my hand that report. Some time ago I talked with a man who was opposed to this Senate Bill 114 because he did not thoroughly understand it. I asked him if he had read the report and he said he had not. I fear greatly that many Members have not read this report. Nor do they fully understand what it contains, nor the immense amount of work that was accomplished by the committee.

I sat with them during the heat of the summer for hours at a time. These statistics come from your Departments and your Department heads in conjunction with the Brookings Institute, which was hired to direct the study. These reports came to this committee as late as September. There was certainly no effort on the part of the committee to set up legislation or to draw up any bills after September. A large advisory group was set up, and in that advisory group they tried to take in every one who was interested in this problem of ours in Pennsylvania, and they too haven't had the proper time to even review this report or to take advantage of the statistics that are in it. This is another reason that we want to continue. They haven't wasted any funds. Every check that was passed out or even sent out by the Joint State Government Commission was signed by the Secretary and Treasurer of the Commission, who is none other than the Speaker of this House. Every check was countersigned by the Chairman of the Commission, who was none other than myself.

Let us just give you the background of the selection of the parties who were engaged to do this work. We tried many different groups who we thought would be capable of undertaking this study. Among them was the Pennsylvania Economy League. For a long time we felt that it would do a good job and we tried our best to have them do the job. There were two organizations available, one centered in New York City, and the other, The Brookings Institute. The committee thought that because of their wide interests The Brookings Institute would possibly be more favorable to do this work than the other group in the center of New York City. So they were finally chosen to help along and do this work, and I fully agreed with it, because under the circumstances I thought it was the best that could be done. Along with them we also had some help from the Pennsylvania Economy League.

Now, Mr. Speaker, this is briefly the background. If we do not continue the work of this committee, whether it be the same personnel or whether it is not, you have all to lose and nothing to gain. Even the money that was appropriated could not be used again because of the amendment for diversion of highway funds. They have approximately one-half of this money, twenty-five thousand dollars, but here we give our own people in this House a chance to make this review and the more important over-all study of one of the greatest problems we have in Pennsylvania.

The Chairman of this committee was from the Senate, but the Vice Chairman we have in our own group in this House. The Vice Chairman of this committee was the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Royer. We have had representation from both sides of this House, both Republican and Democratic. There was no intent at any time to do anything unfair, so far as I know. If there was anything done behind my back, I certainly have no knowledge of it, but if we do not continue this, then we abandon all hope of ever having a complete study made of our highway system and its needs in Pennsylvania. It is important that we do this.

We cannot continue on and just do things haphazardly. I am willing for one to let the members of this committee continue on as a committee, and the members of this advisory group, to continue on in this study, because every one of them are interested, and as I say you certainly have all to lose and nothing to gain.

I think in fairness to this group of fine men who have agreed to serve as an advisory group, I should put their names on the record. I am going to read the names of the advisory committee to whom we look to continue this study in the next two years, and use the statistics that we have in this report that was printed, and then report further progress, something worth while.

Mr. Speaker, I realize that reading over a long list of names is rather tiresome and I'm not going to tire you much longer, but I think in fairness to this advisory group who are all interested and willing to give their time without pay to do his work in an attempt to solve this problem, this should continue. All this bill does is to extend the time two years; that is all it does. Let me say again to you, if you vote against it you just simply vote for a dead loss, you have all to lose and nothing to gain.

I have just one further remark to make and that is this, I have always felt it unfortunate that one of the major groups refused to serve on this advisory committee. They represent the largest number of political units. I told them so that I would know that they would understand. I have always felt that it was very unfortunate that they did not agree to serve on this advisory committee. I think that we should pass this bill and give these men who have worked diligently for the past two years at least another opportunity to present their ideas and make some recommendations of their own.

Mr. FLEMING. . Mr. Speaker, if I in any way have given the impression that I have any criticism to offer for the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss, in his chairmanship of the Joint State Government Commission, or any member who has served on the Commission, I want to publicly state that it was not my intention. If I gave that impression I certainly do most humbly apologize to Mr. Fiss and to every member of the Commission. I think they have done a splendid job. I think that in the main they have given remarkable service to the people of Pennsylvania and to the Members of the Legislature. I think their work should certainly be continued. I think that the Joint State Government Commission is one of the finest adjuncts to the State Legislature that we could possibly have.

I do, however, Mr. Speaker, again rise in opposition to this bill which I am sure is offered for the one purpose and one purpose only, that is for the purpose of delay so that the boroughs, townships and the cities in Pennsylvania cannot have permanently placed on the statute books of Pennsylvania a law which will give them a portion of the gasoline tax. I allege that to the Members of the House, and I think that many of you who served in the session of 1945 will agree with me that this is only for the purpose of delay.

I would, if possible without taking too much time of the House, like to interrogate the gentleman from Snyder Mr. Fiss, but I wonder if the heads of those various municipal groups, such as the association of townships, the second class townships, the associations of boroughs who are headed by men known to all of you members of the House—I wonder if they have approved this further study. I wonder if they have said, "Yes, we want this to go on, we want the study to be continued."

I certainly am not in opposition to any study that is made by the Joint State Government Commission that is for the great benefit of the people of Pennsylvania, but I am against any study that might possibly be made for the one purpose back of it, the purpose of delay. If the one purpose back of it is to delay giving to the municipalities of Pennsylvania much needed relief, I certainly concur again with the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, in opposing the passage of this bill.

Mr. FISS. Mr. Speaker, I think that I could give conclusive answers whether or not these men in this report—if you will just take the time to read even portions of it—have passed by resolution all of the details. They asked by resolution that this be continued. That certainly is fair enough. You can read the resolution and even the report, and I would say that even the worst opposition to it will agree that there is nothing to be gained by pushing this kind of action against the bill for the continuance of this study further. They are all agreed that this is the best thing that can be done and want it to be continued, and so do the members of the committee.

Vote for this bill, because you are simply voting against your own best interests if you vote against it. I want to repeat again that in all the time that I sat with this committee during their deliberations there was never one moment where they felt they were trying to delay, that they were dilatory in their acts; they were deliberate; they were constructive. There never was once, never did I hear that except for a few comments that I read from some who were opposed to it, that this was for delay, but never did that happen or come to my ears during the meetings of this committee or any of the advisory group. So until some of these things are really given us, they are not there. I am giving you the facts. I think that you had better let the Joint State Government Commission, one of the finest organizations that we have ever had in this Commonwealth, continue with this study.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLEMING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether the majority party leadership in this House is prepared to give bond that if we defeat this bill that there will be legislation at this session making additional appropriations from the gas tax, from a new gas tax, to the various political subdivisions?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I can only tell him that unfortunately I do not enjoy the privilege of being in on the inner circles. I would hope that the municipalities would get back more.

Mr. ANDREWS. That is almost a lawyer's answer, Mr. Speaker. He has made his plea for the defeat of this bill and based it on the suggestion that in some way if we defeat this bill there will be additional appropriations to the local political subdivisions from some gas tax. I am perfectly willing to scrap this bill, and practically all of the other bills on the calendar, if the Republican leadership of this House will inform the Members that they have it in mind to make additional appropriations to the political subdivisions that are so dear to the heart of the gentleman from Allegheny. But when he refuses to say that the defeat of this particular measure in any way contributes to a future support of the political municipalities, I think he is all wound up and thrown down by his own party.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, when I answered the interrogation of the gentleman from Cambria, I spoke in good faith. I don't know whether that would make possible a greater allocation for reimbursement to local municipalities or not. But I do say to the gentleman from Cambria that if we pass this bill it will definitely close the door to any further appropriations back to our local districts.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, since the gentleman says that he is not seated in the inner council will he suggest the name of someone who perhaps is seated in the inner council who can answer the question as to whether or not the passage of this bill will close the door to appropriations to the local political subdivisions during the next two years? If the gentleman does not know I would like to have him tell me some Member who does know.

The SPEAKER. The Chair sees rising on the floor his personal counsel. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, the passage or defeat of this measure will not in any manner influence the allocation of funds to the municipalities for the next biennium. I wanted on several occasions before to indicate that when I vote for this measure I am voting for an intelligent approach and a proper study of the problem of road maintenance in our various municipalities.

I am not prepared to give such a bond as the gentleman from Cambria asked for, but I am here to assure the Members of this House that when I do vote for this measure I do so in all sincerity and in the belief that it does not involve delay of any kind.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker

I am glad to find that for once if I happen to be licked he gets licked along with me.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I am very reluctant to drag this out any longer as the Members are probably getting fed up. I want it known that I have only the highest respect for the Members of this Commission and the committee on which they served. But when we say that there were no funds wasted, maybe that is one thing that should not have been mentioned. It is a known fact that ten thousand dollars was spent for a report that had already been published which could have been obtained for three dollars. I am wondering if we continue this whether or not this twenty-five thousand dollars is going to get us any further information than we have already received for the twenty-five thousand dollars that we spent. If we already have the report and haven't had the time to study it, why spend twenty-five thousand dollars more in order to look over what we already have?

We are here as a General Assembly and should be here in all seriousness. We have a top-heavy budget; we are trying to find ways and means of getting money for mental institutions, and what have you. Yet we say that if we do not spend the twenty-five thousand dollars that we have nothing to gain and have everything to lose. Well, twenty-five thousand dollars to me means a lot of money, but maybe I just don't understand finances.

If any of the Commission believe I am saying this as any indication that they were not honest, I want them to understand that is not so. I just believe when they started the thing and when the Advisory Committee were appointed and others who did not serve, that possibly they knew that this report was going to be used; I don't know. No one informed me on this thing, but I believe that this bill instead of coming up for a vote now should be placed on the third reading postponed calendar until we have some idea of how the gasoline funds are going to be allocated.

The gentleman from Cambria asked one question, and if I had had the privilege of answering the gentleman I would have told him that the sponsor of this bill could have told him better than anyone else as to what was going to happen about the one cent.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar.

Mr. FISS. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to debate the bill or the motion to recommit?

Mr. FISS. I will readily admit that I am somewhat at a loss to know whether if I asked the gentleman from Erie to yield until we do have a final debate, he would withdraw his motion temporarily, because I wish further to debate the merits of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie withdraw his motion temporarily?

MOTION TO POSTPONE WITHDRAWN

Mr. WATERHOUSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FISS. I think we have heard statements that I certainly cannot let go unchallenged. When we hear on the floor of the House that money has been wasted by the Joint State Government Commission, then we accept that challenge and I ask the gentleman to bring forth any evidence that he has on his part to show that one check or one cent that went out of the office of the Joint State Government Commission was wasted wilfully. I cannot let statements of that kind go unchallenged, Members of this House.

These men have worked diligently and served diligently and served honestly and served loyally, and when we hear that money has been deliberately wasted, that this is only for delay, that the same information could be bought for a mere three dollars, that reference is only necessary to a book published by the Brookings Institute a number of years ago—and I read that book thoroughly myself—I want to ask the gentleman from Erie to think of the long hours that two of the finest auditors of the Highway Department sat over there in the Joint State Government Commission in the hot hours of last summer and compiled all these reports; think of the members who came from the Internal Revenue Department who also okayed and checked all the figures; think of the men who came from the Department of Internal Affairs and helped us with their machines even in the additions; besides the staff, one of the most efficient staffs of employes that we have in this Commonwealth, and I will except none, these employes of the Joint State Government Commission who have worked overtime along with the members of this committee—I cannot let a statement of that kind go unchallenged.

We welcome, although I am not now the chairman of the Joint State Government Commission, we welcome any investigation. We welcome any board of auditors, any set of investigators, to come before us and examine all of our books, all of our papers. I again say to the Members of this House that this work was performed faithfully, honestly and diligently, and I certainly think that we ought to uphold the members of the Commission as well as this committee, especially those who are Members of this House.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Snyder permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FISS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, was there not a resolution adopted by the advisory committee to request a continuation of the study for two more years, and in the meantime all gas tax and highway legislation would remain in status quo?

Mr. FISS. The advisory committee made a report of that kind, and asked for that in their resolution, that it be continued. Now, it was only, I think with the thought in mind that they did not have sufficient time, but certainly they would have no power whatsoever to keep anything in status quo.

Mrs. DYE. Could the gentleman read a copy of the resolution, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. FISS. It is quite lengthy, Mr. Speaker. The lady from Mercer, Mrs. Dye asked me to read the resolution offered by the advisory committee. I hope you will bear with me, because it is quite lengthy.

"A meeting to receive the report of the advisory committee was held on December 19, 1946, at which time the advisory committee presented its report and recommendations in the form of the following resolution:

"Whereas: The resolution of the General Assembly instructed the Joint State Government Commission through its committee on highways and in consultation with the Advisory Committee appointed thereunder to make "a thorough investigation and impartial study in order to determine the relative responsibilities and burdens which should in equity be placed on the Commonwealth and on political subdivisions in respect to financing and construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of the highways of the Commonwealth, including all state and local highways" and "generally to develop a sound and scientific financial highway program for the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions," and

"Whereas: The basic objective of the investigation and study was to see that the revenues derived from the taxation of motorists and from local taxation be so expended as to produce the maximum of economy and efficiency in highway expenditures, to secure equity for the several groups of taxpayers and provide the greatest benefits to the people of the Commonwealth, and

"Whereas: Under authority of the legislative resolution the Brookings Institution has prepared an impartial and objective report following its investigation of conditions in the Commonwealth, and

"Whereas: The report of The Brookings Institution indicates that it is difficult if not impracticable to devise formulae for the allocation of motor fund monies to the political subdivisions for highway purposes on a basis equitable to all interests until substantial modifications have been made in the physical, administrative and legal structure of our highway system, and

"Whereas: In view of the much larger scope of the study that now appears to be necessary, it seems inopportune at this time for the Advisory Committee to develop a complete program of legislation for consideration at the coming Session of the General Assembly."

That is the resolution.

Mrs. DYE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss, and ask who wrote the resolution.

Mr. FISS. This resolution as I say, "A meeting to receive the report of the advisory committee was held on December 19, 1946—" I can give you the names of a number of the members but I will also give you the President, R. P. Maxwell, Secretary-Manager of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation was the Chairman of the Advisory Committee. Dr. H. F. Alderfer, Secretary of the State Association of Boroughs was Secretary of the Advisory Committee.

Mrs. DYE. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. McKINNEY. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to prolong the debate on this particular bill, but I do wish to state my position on its final enactment.

I have been opposed to this, I think the money has been wasted, I think any further continuation of this study would be wasted. I think the local communities have received no benefit from this and I ask the House to vote against this bill.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I believe I should again make it clear; the gentleman from Snyder said that he could not let go unchallenged the statement that money had been wilfully wasted or that there was any dishonesty or what have you. There is no such intent in any remarks that I have made. Whether there was or was not I do not know, but I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Snyder, Mr. Fiss, if I might.

The SPEAKER Will the gentleman from Snyder permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FISS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire from the gentleman from Snyder as to whether or not Brookings's Institute received between $9,000 and $10,000 for their report?

Mr. FISS. Mr. Speaker, they did not receive ten thousand dollars for their report. They worked throughout the two years in conjunction with the other departments and employes and presented their report. The recommendations only of the Brookings's Institute is what appears some place in the book referred to.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, that is not answering my question; that is evading it. It is what you might call a lawyer's answer. I asked whether or not Brookings's Institute received a check from the Commission for between $9,000 and $10,000 for their services—I will put it that way.

Mr. FISS. Brookings's Institute was hired by the Joint State Government Commission on recommendations of this committee with a contract for ten thousand dollars even money.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, did the Commission receive any information or service from the Brookings's Institute that they would not have been able to have gotten had they studied the report or the book that had already been published by the Brookings's Institute before they were hired for their particular duty?

Mr. FISS. There is the crux of the whole matter. In the first place I tried to make it plain to the membership of this House that we attempted to hire, not Brookings's Institute but the Pennsylvania Economy League to make this study. We tried many others; at least a half dozen others. We came to two who were willing to undertake this study. One I just cannot recall the name of that had headquarters in New York City, and the other was the Brookings's Institute. I say to the membership of this House that throughout the two years of work in conjunction with all of the employes of the Commission and the different Departments who were aiding us, there was unlimited work done by the Brookings's Institute. No reference in any sense was ever made to the bill during this study, but there was hour after hour spent in collecting data and statistics by the Brookings's Institute, the Pennsylvania Economy League and the different Departments I have mentioned.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. That will be all. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, after the interrogation we know exactly what we knew before, that we have paid ten thousand dollars to Brookings's Institute, but we still do not know whether we got any information that we might not have had had we just sat down and studied the little book. I can only agree with my colleagues, Mr. Fleming and Mr. McKinney that this is a stall, and I believe that the motion that I made should be in order at this time, that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar—the final passage postponed calendar.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the final passage postponed calendar.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Would it be necessary to have a special rule in order to keep Cappy Thompson from coaching from the sidelines?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, the Chair might state that it is not necessary to pass any special rule. Under rule 91 we find that:

"No person shall be permitted to occupy the seats of the Members; or interrupt a Member by speaking to him in his seat while the House is in session; and it shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to give notice to any person offending against this rule."

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the Speaker, and would the Speaker call the Rule to the attention of the Sergeant-at-Arms?

The SPEAKER. Delighted.

Najaka, Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

MEMBER CONGRATULATED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very happy at this time to congratulate a Member of the House on becoming a proud father, the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier.

The Chair understands that the cigar line, tax free, will form at the postoffice room immediately after the session. The Chair might also say that the minority Members announced yesterday the birth of a child in the home of a Democratic Member, Mr. Weiss. The Speaker's Page has had a birth in his family. This puts us one up.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier.

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I plead guilty, and it is not my first offense. I presume I am subject to the penalty of the law—subject to a life sentence. However, I feel well compensated under the circumstances. I have wondered what kind of a world the youngsters would come into, whether it will be one of trial and tribulation or whether it will be one of scientific progress, additional educational facilities and an era of peace. I am certain that our parents and grandparents wondered about us the same way when we were born. However, I might say that any child that is born in America today is born in a land which is the beacon of liberty and freedom, and for that reason, if for no other reason we should continue propagation to make this land stronger. I want to submit that I am doing my share, and I want to say that the mother and son are doing very well. However, I cannot correctly report on the condition of the father. Thank you so much.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, can anyone inform me as to the exact purpose of this bill; what it is intended to accomplish and why. I am not opposed to the bill; I simply don't know what it is all about.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, as I understand, under the present provisions of the law where there may be a uniting of certain utilities, whether it be within this state or across state lines, it is not permitted under the present law to merge or to consolidate for the sake of efficiency. This bill will provide the legal right to accomplish that purpose.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, if this bill passes would it allow the transportation of natural gas through the Big and Little Inch pipelines?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I understand that this bill does not apply to that particular type of utility service.

Mr. COLE. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Najaka, Trout,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 34

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Resolution No. 34, Printer's No. 567 on page 31 of today's calendar.

In the House of Representatives, March 31, 1947.

Whereas, The taxpayers of this state and Nation have spent upwards of five million dollars to plan and construct the Scranton and Wilkes-Barre Airport soon to be opened; and

Whereas, It is widely known in aviation circles that the excellent planning and development of this air field has made it a very-important link in the potential civil and military air transportation pattern of the north-eastern part of our country; and

Whereas Field examiners for the Civil Aeronautics Board recently recommended to the full Board that all applications made by major airlines to serve the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre Airport be rejected and that small untied air service groups be permitted to provide air transportation to and from the Nation's 19th largest metropolitan area and

Whereas, The people of northeastern Pennsylvania under the proposed recommendations in addition to the denial of major air line service will be without direct air transportation to such important business and government areas as Harrisburg, our State Capital, Washington, our National Capital, New England, the Midwest, the West, and the South; and

Whereas, The confirmation of the field examiners' recommendations by the Civil Aeronautics Board proper will have a further bad effect on the employment rehabilitation of northeastern Pennsylvania, and will deny to Pennsylvania's outstanding all-weather airport its rightful place in ascending civil air traffic in this country; therefore, be it

Resolved by this House of Representatives that it is the opinion of the membership of the House that the recommendation of the field examiners should not be accepted by the Civil Aeronautics Board and be it further

Resolved That the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission give its support and cooperation in the effort of the people of N E Pennsylvania to have the recommendation of the field examiners disapproved

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for this new day of service and opportunity and may we give to Thee and to our fellow-men the best that we have. We thank Thee for the happy memories that linger with us from last Sunday when we celebrated Mother's Day. We praise Thee that Thou hast given us that great gift of motherhood and we pray that through Thy Spirit we may fulfill the hopes and dreams that they had when we lay in their arms as infants, that we may help to make this world a place where motherhood and childhood shall have all that Thou dost desire for them.

Bless us in the service we are endeavoring to render to them here in this legislative body, that the days ahead may be days of peace and love and harmony for all peoples.

We ask it in Thy Holy Name. Amen!

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

Mr. CRIDER. Mr. President, I desire to call from the table Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 113, Page 188 of the History. Before moving for action on this resolution I desire to make a few statements concerning the same.

In 1945 a committee was appointed to revamp and re-codify criminal laws and also procedure. That committee met a number of times in the interim between the last session and this session and out of those meetings there comes before the Senate today for action, Senate Bill 306, which is the criminal code.

That committee was composed of lawyers from the Senate and the House and several other star defense lawyers, some capable districts attorney and some able jurists and some well-learned men in criminal law.

This committee believes that the criminal code revision as presented today is a very good piece of work, a workable piece of work and something that can be well voted for by the Senate to then pass over to the House for action.

Mr. President, the committee was not able to touch the question of procedure. Therefore on March 10 of this year, I introduced a resolution providing that the Joint State Government Commission continue in the next biennium the study of criminal procedure, so that its study of that subject could be submitted to the next session of the General Assembly and an act of Assembly enacted to tie in with the present criminal code.

I make these preliminary remarks because we will be voting today on the work of this committee as reflected in Senate Bill No. 306, which is up for third reading and final passage today, and therefore, in order that the Joint State Government Commission may continue its work, I respectfully move that Senate Concurrent Resolution 113 be approved.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. CRIDER. I desire to call from the table Senate Concurrent Resolution, Serial No. 113, on page 188 of the Senate History.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

The resolution was twice read as follows:

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO CONTINUE ITS STUDY, INVESTIGATION AND CONSIDERATION OF ALL PENAL LAWS OF THE COMMONWEALTH

In the Senate, March 10, 1947.

Whereas, Under Resolution, Serial Number 15 of the General Assembly of 1945, the Joint State Government Commission was directed to investigate, survey and consider all penal laws of the Commonwealth and to revise and restate such penal laws in codified form and to report its findings and conclusions at the next regular session of the General Assembly, and

Whereas, The laws of criminal procedure of the Commonwealth to better serve the efficient administration of justice are in need of similar study and codification, and

Whereas, Because of the great importance attached to both the proper study and codification of the penal laws and the laws relating to criminal procedure it would be advisable and advantageous to make further study of the penal laws in conjunction with a study of the laws relating to criminal procedure, therefore be it,

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Joint State Government Commission be directed to continue its survey, investigation and consideration of all the penal laws of the Commonwealth and in connection therewith to survey, investigate and consider the laws of the Commonwealth relating to criminal procedure and to completely revise and restate such penal laws and laws relating to criminal procedure into codified form and to report its findings and conclusions to the next regular session of the General Assembly with a bill or bills embodying a codification of the penal laws and laws relating to criminal procedure of the Commonwealth to be introduced at the next regular session of the General Assembly;

The Legislative Reference Bureau shall prepare the necessary drafts of all bills agreed on by the commission and shall furnish such advice and assistance as it may be called on to furnish.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

The first, second and third articles were separately read and agreed to.

The fourth article was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the article?

Messrs. TURNER, FOOR and CAPANO offered amendments to Article 4.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, first, may I ask whether I can have a copy of the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Capano? May I also ask whether I can have a copy of the amendments offered by the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Foor?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible to have each one of the sponsors of amendments state just exactly what purpose he had in mind so that we can vote intelligently on the program as a whole? The gentleman from Delaware has proposed one program, which if adopted would automatically drop some of the other programs, so if we can have a statement by the sponsors of the different amendments as to what they had in mind to do we could vote more intelligently on the amendments as they come up.

The SPEAKER. Without objection the Chair will proceed in that way. We will take the amendments in the order in which they were offered and recognize the gentleman who offered the amendments in that order, so that each may have an opportunity to explain for the record the purpose of the amendments he has offered. The Chair hears no objection and we will proceed in that manner.

The Chair might state to the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Foor, that he will be recognized immediately for such statement as he may have to make after the gentleman from Delaware has concluded.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the indulgence of the House to wander for a moment away from the question as to the amendments offered by myself to Section 461, in order that I might explain what I think most of the Members of the House have already heard, that Bill No. 1170, which is now before the House, was the result of a resolution offered in the 1945 session to codify the liquor laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which were passed from 1932 on through almost every session, and also to encompass a lot of obsolete laws on the statute books that should be repealed because of the provisions of the regular laws.

As a result of the codification work carried on by the Reference Bureau, House Bill 1170 was introduced with seven changes in the law as it existed. Each one of you Members has received, or should have received in your mail box a statement by Mr. Hannestatt or by Mr. Glidden, the Assistant Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, as to the work done in reference to House Bill 1170 and listing the seven changes which appear in House Bill 1170, also listing the number of repeal and the reasons therefor, and a final certification by Mr. Glidden in which he says that "with the exceptions noted above the draftsman certified that in his opinion the bill contains a correct statement of the existing laws after obsolete and inconsistent matter has been eliminated."

Therefore, the bill as it stands, although there seems to have been a great deal of misunderstanding among the parties in interest, is exactly the law as it exists today with the exception of the seven changes noted in these comments made by Mr. Glidden.

I am not going to take the time of the House to read those seven exceptions because I think that all the Members of the House are familiar with them.

The most controversial change, and the one that seems to be the only controversial change for the moment is that which takes the clubs out of the quota. As you all know, when the quota law was passed in 1939 it was the intention of the Legislature at that time to exclude the clubs from the quota. In the drafting of the final amendments to the bill during the tailend of that session, I think in almost the closing hours, through inadvertance the provisions were written with such ambiguity that it was ruled by the Liquor Control Board that clubs were within the quota of one license for each one thousand of population according to the last census as filed, and a club could not get a license.

As a result, however, in this state there has come about an unendurable situation. In some twenty-eight counties the judges have ruled that the clubs are not within the quota. In some twenty-five counties of the state the judges have ruled that the clubs are within the quota. There being no appeal to the higher court, which is one of the exceptions in our law of presenting an appeal, there has still remained in the State of Pennsylvania, in spite of the fact that we are supposed to have one liquor system and one set of liquor laws, two sets of liquor laws, depending on the county in which you reside.

It was therefore determined by the Liquor Control Committee that there should be added to the bill, House Bill 1170 as it was introduced in this House—the bill did not contain any provision for taking the clubs out of the quota, as we call it,—the Committee felt that the club provision, taking the clubs out of the quota, should be settled once and for all, and that it should be made a part of House Bill 1170. There has therefore arisen as I have said, a great controversy in this House as to whether clubs should be within or without, whether this bill should be passed as it now stands or whether this bill should be amended in some way to put it back in the form in which it was introduced, or the form in which at least it went to the Committee on Liquor Control.

The opponents of the provision for taking the clubs out of the quota are the dry interests in Pennsylvania whose opposition I can readily understand, and retail licensees in Pennsylvania who do not want any increase in the number of clubs in Pennsylvania. So far as I can ascertain—and there has been a great deal of lobbying on this bill—proper lobbying—I don't complain about it, during the session, those two interests have lined up against the provision taking the clubs out of the quota. Therefore in the spirit, Mr. Speaker, of compromise, I have offered an amendment which says in effect that we will take the clubs out of the quota for eighteen months. In other words the effective date of this act will be September 1, and beginning on September 1st we will take the clubs out of the quota for a period of eighteen months, which would carry it into March or the spring of the year 1949 when this Legislature will be in session, and when it will have an opportunity to determine for itself whether this has been a wrong or a proper move.

I might say again, if you will indulge me in wandering from the direct question of the amendments, my interest in this matter has been entirely in the service clubs, and when I speak of service clubs I mean those clubs organized by veterans of the different wars and the different veteran organizations that have risen from this war. I have been interested in that group because I have found not only from my own personal knowledge, but from the letters and telegrams that have poured into my office during this session, that those groups feel that they are being discriminated against and that they are being deprived of an opportunity to secure licenses for their headquarters and for their posts, to which others have been entitled and for which certain counties are willing to give a license.

But in drafting this legislation, if I could have written this legislation for the service men alone, I would have been glad to do so, but we studied that question long before this session over in the Reference Bureau, and came to the conclusion that, if we included not only the service clubs but clubs or organizations of National standing, and all the beneficial fraternal organizations of national standing, if we included them in the group it would still be class legislation and therefore unconstitutional.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I say again that the purpose and intent of the amendments which I am offering here today is in the spirit of compromise and because I feel that if we can open this for eighteen months, those new service organizations and new veterans' organizations who are now deprived from securing a license for their homes, not only in counties where there are other organizations, but I know of many in counties where no posts exist, it will give them an opportunity to apply for a charter if they do not have one, within the next eighteen months, and to apply for and secure a license. That is the spirit of the amendment which I am offering.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. TURNER. Did I understand the Speaker to say that he was going to give each sponsor of an amendment an opportunity to explain the amendment offered before we proceed to discuss or to vote upon the particular amendment?

The SPEAKER. That was the Chair's intention. He believes it would also carry out the thought expressed by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. TURNER. I think, Mr. Speaker, that is a very intelligent way to approach this entire problem, and I certainly would yield the floor for that purpose, but I would like to have the privilege of having the floor when the other two gentlemen have explained their amendments.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will recognize the gentleman from Delaware at that time.

Mr. FOOR. Mr. Speaker, the amendment that I have offered does just one thing, and that is it leaves the clubs in the quota law as of today, and for the following reasons. For the information of the House I would like to quote these figures, the type and number of licenses that are already granted in this State:

Club licenses, Retail Liquor Licenses 3727; Retail Beer Licenses 328; making a total of 4055.

Hotels have liquor license to the amount of 2153;

Restaurants have retail liquor licenses to the amount of 12,518; retail beer licenses to the amount of 1677, making a total of 14,195, or a grand total in the State of 20,455, or on a ratio basis of one to 535 of population.

The population of Pennsylvania in 1940 was 9,900,180.

A comparison of the three states that are dealing with this same question, Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania: Michigan has a population of 5,471,774, and they have bars, hotels and clubs to the amount of 4,500, a ratio of 1 to 1,216.

Ohio has a population of 6,873,448, and they have licenses to the amount of 6,645, a ratio of 1 to 1,034.

Pennsylvania has a population at this time of 9,193,957, and they have bars, hotels and clubs to the amount of 17,014, a ratio of 1 to 540.

Mr. Speaker, Pennsylvania now has more than twice as many licensed clubs as any other state in the union. If we throw the State wide open for any kind of club licenses, we will soon have clubs in every city ward, along the highways and in hunting camps. If we open the way for an unlimited number of clubs, we make a farce of the quota law.

Veterans clubs are not without recourse. In every municipality licenses can be purchased and transferred.

If the liquor interests continue to open new licensed places in defiance of public opinion they will have only themselves to blame if an aroused public finds some way to get rid of all licenses.

Mr. Speaker, I would like a roll call on my amendment when the time comes.

The SPEAKER. The Chair, in accordance with the understanding, now recognizes the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Capano.

Mr. CAPANO. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of my amendment is to strike out section 461 which deals with the quota law. In other words to make it open to any one to engage in business. I believe that the present law is unfair, unjust and discriminatory, especially on our veterans today who seek that field of business. They should have equal opportunity to go into the business if they so desire. Today they are being robbed outrightly by the exorbitant prices that are being charged for licenses. I think it is about time that it be put to a stop and give them the same opportunity especially since they didn't have that opportunity because they were not home or were not old enough or did not have the finances to do so before. I think today we should give them an opportunity to go into the business the same as any one else.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, to sum up the situation as to the amendments which have been offered to section 461, the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Capano, would wipe out the quota entirely. The gentleman from Bedford would put the law back in its present confused state.

I don't believe that that is a fair and proper position to take. We ought to face this question here, we ought to have one law and it seems to me that those who are interested from the dry standpoint should be the first ones to come here, and if they want to put the clubs in the quota, let us put them in the quota, but let us not put it back to the confusion that exists, if we can help it. I certainly do not believe that they ought to do away with the quota entirely as matters now stand, without further study.

Mr. Speaker, as I presented the first amendments I therefore ask that that question be submitted to the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the Democratic members of the House have not caucused upon these amendments and therefore there is no party position. My vote on the roll call will not indicate a party position or in any way represent an obligation as to the other Members of the Minority party group.

We are dealing with an illogical situation, and you cannot solve it on any logical basis. The evils incident to the liquor traffic are inherent in the traffic. It is incompatible with sound practice that we should deny to the veterans of World War II the privileges that the Commonwealth extended to veterans of World War I. It is inconsistent with sound practice and it will be ultimately destructive of the clubs themselves if we open the doors wide to clubs of all kinds.

If we were facing a purely personal feeling, if I were allowing my personal temper to influence my vote, the character of the telegrams with which the clubs have deluged the Members of this House, the truculent manner in which the clubs have spoken, the insolent tone of their communications would lead me to vote against all clubs, because I do not relish a club in the hands of a club any more than I relish a club in the hands of any other special interest.

I say that we have an illogical situation. I believe that in the main the Judges of the Commonwealth have exercised a sort of rule of thumb local option. I believe that by and large the Judges who have said clubs are in the quota have reflected the opinion in their county, and the Judges who say they are out of the quota have reflected the opinion of their counties.

Now, I am in the position of coming from a county where the Judges say the clubs are out of the quota, and as far as the present law is concerned in my county we will have no difficulties as far as the club quota is concerned, as far as Cambria County is concerned.

I repeat that I have not relished the communications from the clubs that have attempted to dictate a statewide policy, and therefore I personally am taking a stand for permitting the quota law to stand "as is," with the judges' in the various counties interpreting the law and leaving the way open for an appeal to the Superior Court, which will throw this question back in the lap of this House.

Mr. VAUGHAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak on this amendment, House Bill 1170, not only as a representative of this House, but as a veteran of the last war, and a member of a veteran organization.

On this Monday last I was visited by a chosen delegation from the joint legislative committees of all of the veterans organizations in this great commonwealth. I refer, to the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the AMVETS, the Disabled American Veterans, the Military Order of the Purple Heart, the Marine Corps League, the Catholic War Veterans and the Jewish War Veterans, and was asked to throw my unqualified support to the provisions of this bill that exempts clubs from the liquor license quota. As many of my fellow representatives know, I was previously for the removal of clubs from the liquor license quota, since I felt such a provision, if any exists in our present laws, was an infringement on the rights of the citizens of our commonwealth. After discussing this matter with the representatives of the veterans organizations, I have been imbued with the spirit of their message and I ask the privilege and indulgence of this body in bringing their message to you.

To begin with, the amendment is needed to clearly remove clubs from the quota provisions of the liquor control act. It is necessary to correct this multiple interpretation of our present laws and in order to provide uniformity throughout this great commonwealth, in which the courts of 22 counties hold that clubs are not within the quota, and 32 counties hold that they are. The 13 remaining counties make no decision either way. This condition must be corrected in order to preserve the dignity of the courts of this commonwealth, if many other reasons did not exist to justify this course, this one alone would suffice.

At the time the quota act was interpreted to include clubs there was no thought of another war and of new veterans organizations, and of the new posts throughout Pennsylvania of the older veterans organizations, who would want to form their own post clubs.

Among the very first of the first ten amendments to the Constitution of the United States as written by the founding fathers were the provisions to guarantee the right of free assembly for lawful purposes. The refusal of the right to have, maintain, and have the means of maintaining meeting places for lawful purposes would be, in effect, a refusal of the right to meet and congregate for lawful purposes.

There has rarely been a bill so unanimously endorsed and so unanimously needed to allow the healthy growth of veterans organizations as a bill to exclude clubs from the quota. The veterans organizations do not like to have to endorse or work for any liquor bill, but this is a question of whether the veterans shall survive or whether we shall strangle the veterans.

When the liquor law passed, the principle concern of the Legislature was to permit the people to conveniently buy drinks. There was no profit angle, there was to be no open saloon. No one was to earn his living exclusively from the sale of liquor. In determining how drinks should be distributed to the people the Legislature among other things, created club licenses because they knew that people desired to drink with their own friends or within their own business or fraternal circles. This was purely a social arrangement, and not an economic arrangement by any means; it being intended that no one other than the club itself should benefit by any possible profit that might be derived from the sale of liquor in these clubs. Most of the members of this House that were here in 1939 when the original quota act was passed know that it was the intent of the Legislature of Pennsylvania to exclude clubs from the quota, because the theory of clubs still is that they are a private social group and not in the same category as other licensees, where profit is the principal and in most cases the only motive for the sale of liquor or beer.

There have been more red herrings thrown out on this floor, in the corridors and cloak rooms, more vicious lies and slander about this bill, as you, my fellow representatives, can testify, than there has been about any bill that has reached the floor in this session.

I don't know what fool there is who thinks that we are so stupid to fall for every bit of leg pulling that has been tried on this bill, but we have been told that this bill will put distributors under the quota, although the person disseminating this rumor should know (even without legal training) that with only good common sense a reading of this bill will indicate and show that it does not affect distributors licenses in any manner whatsoever. The practical effect of this legislation is to re-enact the present liquor control act as it applies to distributors. Further, any one who reads Section 461, which is the only section in this act dealing with quotas on liquor licenses will see at a glance that it is the same as the presently existing legislation except that it adds to hotels the words, "and clubs," to take clubs out of liquor quota law, and does not add any licenses to the quota that are not now in the quota.

Opposed to the veterans organizations are the liquor dealers, the dry's, the anti-veteran communist group, who are determined that veterans posts shall not have licenses, although for entirely different purposes, and with entirely different motives concerning which I would like to touch on briefly but vividly. The liquor dealers who have piled up a mountain of greenbacks during this war on the sale of liquor to war workers and to soldiers and sailors on a brief liberty spree, attempting to relax from their war cares and duties, are determined now that they will continue to profit on the same soldiers and sailors by so continuing the law, that these men, now ex-soldiers and sailors, who wish to have a drink with their fellow buddies would be forced to buy their liquor from the retail liquor dealers rather than to engage in any drinking that they might do in the more restrained and social atmosphere of their own veterans organizations.

As for the dries, odd partners in this alliance, with the liquor dealers, little need be said. They are opposed to the use of liquor in any manner, including medicinal, and they are the founders and framers of that foolish "Great Experiment" under which our country suffered for fifteen years, the only amendment to the Constitution of the United States that was ever repealed, and which proved itself to be, then and now, entirely unworkable and impractical. We need no 18th amendment in Pennsylvania.

And lastly, the third partner of this alliance, and I refer without any fear of rebuttal, to the communists and their fellow travelers, who have failed to establish their own veterans organization and are unalterably opposed to other veterans organizations, since they know that these veterans organizations have as their prime purpose the building of Americanism, which carries with it the eradication of communism in these United States; and to give the devil his due, this time, since in this measure they desire to be successful, the communists have been more adroit than usual and have sought to utilize their strength where it would be most effective by throwing their weight through the Retail Liquor Dealers Association, who, since I wish to give them the benefit of the doubt, may not even suspect that a great part of their support is coming from that direction.

It has been a very rare experience indeed for the members of this House to have received a telegram, as very member of this House did last week, in which practically all of the great veterans organizations, the American Veterans of World War II, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, the disabled American Veterans, the Military Order of the Purple Heart, the Marine Corps League and the Jewish War Veterans, all joined in endorsing this bill, and since that date, in fact on May 12, the representatives of these same organizations, together with the representatives of the American Legion and the Catholic War Veterans, again reiterated their support of House Bill 1170, Printer's No. 536, as it now stands.

The question, Mr. Speaker, is very clear. A vote for this bill as it now stands is a vote of confidence in the ability of the veterans to conduct proper clubs, clubs that will be a bulwark against communism.

A vote against this bill, gentlemen, is a vote for the unholy alliance of greed, as represented by the Liquor Dealers Association, of intolerance as represented by the dry's, and of ignorance and oblivion as represented by the communists.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask in putting the question that you state the question clearly to the members of the House.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman the amendments have not yet been read for the information of the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to be certain that I have correctly understood the import of the amendments offered by the gentleman from Bedford.

Would his amendments leave the quota law as it is now or would it definitely, finally and irrevocably place the clubs within the quota and leave the Judges in the various counties without any further jurisdiction in the matter?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Cambria wish to interrogate the gentleman from Bedford?

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like, Mr. Speaker, an answer as to the import of the amendment.

Mr. FOOR. Mr. Speaker, it definitely leaves the quota law where it is as of today.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, permit me to say that I have listened with a great deal of interest to the discussion of the veterans in this connection. I would like to leave this impression with the House, that the main interest of the veterans, and I speak as a veteran, is not to engage in the liquor business. I know that many of the posts and veteran organizations are interested and I believe they are just as evenly divided in this matter as we are. Many of them do not want to engage in the liquor business while others do, and I believe that the veterans' position in this thing has been over-emphasized by those who wish to exclude the clubs from the quota.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, since three different persons introduced amendments to this bill, none of which seem to agree with each other, it seems that the sensible thing to do is to refer the bill back to the committee that it came from and give us all a chance to study this matter, and I therefore make that motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state to the gentleman from Indiana that he will be glad to entertain such a motion after the amendments are disposed of, but the Chair is under a commitment that he would hear the arguments of the three gentlemen who are presenting amendments to the bill. The Chair is of the opinion that these amendments should be disposed of. After that the Chair will entertain a motion to recommit if the gentleman desires to make it.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to prolong the debate on the amendments, but I do want to say a word in favor of Mr. Turner's amendments and against Mr. Foor's.

I am opposed to all limitation to either clubs or other licensees. I think that the liquor traffic can be properly controlled by the Liquor Control Board. It has the personnel and the funds available to properly enforce the law. I think the law of economics should be allowed to determine the number of licenses that we may have in the State of Pennsylvania. But we have this problem here today, and I think we should face it.

In 1939 when the limitation law was passed, most of the Members, including myself, thought that the clubs were excluded from the quota law. Since that time we have found that the courts of the various counties cannot agree, and we have a chaotic condition in Pennsylvania.

Had we passed House Bill 1170 as it was originally introduced, allowing an appeal to the Superior Court in all cases, the question would finally have been decided one way or the other.

However, in doing that we would in effect be saying to the Superior Court "You tell us whether the clubs are within or without the quota law" and that I submit is not the way to proceed. A good many of the counties exclude clubs from the quota, and Mr. Turner's amendment today, as I understand, would limit the operation of such exclusion to a period of eighteen months in order to take care of a very pressing problem involving the veterans' organizations. For that reason I am in favor of this amendment, but we should decide the matter ourselves, and we should not duck it and say to the Superior Court "You legislate for Pennsylvania; we are afraid to do it." I don't know why anybody should be afraid to stand up and be counted on the quota law, whether he wants clubs within or without the quota. Certainly the effect of such action would be a lack of courage in my opinion. I do not think it is well for the morale of the people of Pennsylvania to know that courts in one county say one thing and courts in another county say something else. I happen to be an attorney myself, and many people say "What's the matter with the courts? Why can't they agree?" They don't know the complexities, they don't know that laws can be honestly and intelligently interpreted two ways. I think we ought to end that situation today. If you are against the clubs being licensed and if you think there should be less licensed clubs, let us end the quota, but do not let us straddle by saying "Let us leave the law the way it is today." It seems to me that we should not legislate liquor for any retailers or clubs or any other particular group. Retail licensees are opposing the exclusion of clubs from the quota. That is purely economic; they don't like the competition of the clubs, and if I were a retailer I would not like it either.

I think we should legislate for every different group and interest. Certainly there is nothing wrong with people getting together and forming an organization, a club. If they see fit to get together in their own club and drink, I think they should have the right to do so and I am going to vote in favor of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner's amendment, and against Mr. Poor's.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Indiana will state it.

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, would it be in order to move that this bill be laid on the table together with the amendments?

The SPEAKER. That is a proper parliamentary motion under the rules of the House. It is a question which the House itself must decide.

Mr. HEWITT. I make such a motion, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. This is not a debatable motion.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, at the time this question first came up on the amendments, it was my understanding that it had been agreed that the three proponents were to have an opportunity to speak on their amendments, that then you would take up and consider each amendment in the order of its introduction, and at that time I told the Speaker that I would yield the floor on that understanding. Therefore, it would seem to me that any motion to table at the present time would not only be out of order because we have not had the amendments read, but in the second place it would be breaking faith with the understanding which I had at the time the amendments were presented.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might say to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, that the motion to lay upon the table cannot be submitted to the House until after the amendments have been read.

MOTION TO LAY ON TABLE WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, if I erred in my motion, I withdraw the motion until the amendments are read. That is the way I understand it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state that when requested by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, he would ask that unanimous consent be given, and if there was no objection, the amendments would be handled in the manner which we have seen here on the floor.

There was no objection at that time to giving opportunity to the three gentlemen to be heard, and then acting upon each amendment in the order in which it was presented to the House.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, in order to place you in the position in which you belong I am very glad to withdraw all opposition, as I have stated.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Indiana.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, my understanding is the same as that of Mr. Turner in his discussion of these amendments, that the question of these amendments was open to the House and that they would then be read. I do not care to prolong argument too much. I think the Members of the House are all aware of the situation at hand. Certainly most of them, I am sure, have been thinking of it a good long time and have heard a great deal about it in the last few weeks. I would like to say a few words, however, in support of Mr. Turner's amendment.

I agree with Mr. Turner and Mr. Readinger that this is a problem that this Legislature should not duck in any way. It is a legislative problem that is for the Members of this House and for this Legislature to decide, and certainly it is not a question for the courts or any one else to decide. I, therefore, ask the Members of this House to give this bill and the amendments that have been offered their due consideration and vote on them accordingly.

We all know that the law as it now stands has created a ridiculous and unfair situation in the state. We have a state law which is not a uniform law throughout the state, and I believe, and sincerely believe that situation has worked terrific hardship on certain organizations which are denied the benefits and privileges which other comparable organizations enjoy. Even within one county itself we have clubs who have liquor licenses, and across the street or up the street from a club, which is comparable in purposes and ideals to that other club, the one will have a liquor license and the other have none. I submit to the House is that a fair proposition and a fair situation?

To carry the matter a step further, we have counties where bona fide legal clubs can obtain a club liquor license and in the bordering county clubs cannot have that same privilege.

I submit to this House, is that a fair proposition and a fair law? Certainly I say that it is not and it is a problem which this Legislature should take by the horns, so to speak, and settle once and for all. I am sure that all of the members of the clubs, with or without licenses, will have more respect for the Members of this House if we do so.

I think that possibly too much is being said about the veterans. I am a veteran myself, but I don't think anybody owes me a living. I think veterans' legislation has reached the saturation point, but as a veteran speaking more or less on their behalf on this situation, I do not believe and I do not feel that the veterans are asking for any special legislation whatsoever. They are only asking for what is fair, they are only asking that they may have the same privileges and enjoy the same benefits as other like organizations enjoy right in their own communities, and right in their own state.

We have many veterans' organizations in this state which have cropped up almost since the close of World War I. All they want is to be put back on a parity, on an equal basis with other clubs in their own community and in the State so that they can perpetuate themselves and contribute to charitable organizations and programs in their communities which the other clubs do today and which certainly the veterans' clubs do in every State.

The only argument I have heard against excluding these clubs from the quota law is through fear that the thing will be abused, it will put temptation in front of the young veteran who is back from the wars, back in civilian life. I do not believe that. I would rather see the veteran and the young man in my community and in any other community spend his time in a well organized club under the influence and control of older members of that club than I would see him spend his time on Main Street in Joe's Flop House. That is my personal opinion and I am sure the clubs that I am familiar with, and many that you are familiar with, can give a much better environment and influence and will control the liquor traffic and the liquor situation in this Commonwealth to their credit and to our credit, if given a chance.

Mr. Speaker, my only objection to Mr. Foor's amendment is that it does nothing. It puts the law right where it is today. It evades the whole situation in the problem which I think is the predominant thing in the liquor laws today.

I urge this House to support the amendments as offered by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, to House Bill 1170.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, from the remarks of the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, and the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, it would appear that in the 1939 Session they were under the impression that the clubs were excluded, but since that time there have been three Sessions held and nothing has been done about it. I think that both of those gentlemen have been here during those Sessions.

It is certainly unfortunate that they are using the veterans as a smoke screen for this bill. I am positive that if the veterans, the majority of veterans had a right to vote or choose on the matter they would not be in favor of excluding clubs from the quota. Many clubs in my community have included in their by-laws a provision that no liquor or intoxicating drink will be served in their clubs, and they are getting along very nicely. I wonder whether the Members of this House realize that when they open up to let these club organizations operate in the next eighteen months, what it will mean to their community, to the tax-payers' money, and the cost of policing these organizations which we all know have to be policed. I am asking the Members of this House to vote "no" on Mr. Turner's amendment.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Crawford, he left the House under the impression that all this has been discussed at length by the Members of the House. Of course the Republican Members talked this bill over yesterday at length, but these amendments were never suggested or mentioned during the conversation. My idea in making the motion I did was to give us time, but I understand the motion was out of order. My thought was that it might give us more time to talk it over. The gentleman from Crawford left us under the impression that we had already discussed the matter.

Mr. TURNER. Will the Speaker have the amendments offered by myself read for the information of the House before putting the motion?

The SPEAKER. The Chair was about to do that, since the amendments had not been read up to this time.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I understand that among the lawyers there is still some difference of opinion as to the exact effect of the amendments proposed by the gentleman from Bedford. I would like to be very clear on that point because if the amendments proposed by the gentleman from Bedford do not leave the situation exactly as it is today, then I am for the amendments proposed by the gentleman from Delaware, but if the amendments proposed by the gentleman from Bedford do what he says they will do, I favor his amendments and I would like some of our eminent lawyers, and I know of no one more eminent than the gentleman from Delaware, to give us an opinion.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Cambria for his plug.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might say that he feels a little resentful at the gentleman's remarks. He has always prided himself on his own private counsel, who has given the benefit of his advice and counsel to the gentleman from Cambria.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I might say that I think the Speaker's counsel is still in doubt.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand the interrogation is ended, and I have therefore no need to answer that sixty-four dollar question. I will be glad to pay the fee to the gentleman from Cambria, however, for the complimentary remarks which go into the record and I hope no one expunges them. I will exhibit them to my clients. Does the gentleman from Cambria desire me to answer the question?

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that he does.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am very serious about the matter. As a layman I am unable to determine the question that apparently has baffled two very able lawyers, including yourself.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, miracles will never cease. I never knew of a newspaper man who was unable to answer any question.

I might say in all seriousness in answer to the gentleman's question, that it is my understanding, and I am sorry I have not been able to discover him here, but I had asked Mr. Glidden of the Legislative Reference Bureau to be here on the sidelines so that he might be a lawyers' lawyer in the event such a question arose, but it is my understanding—pardon me, may I retire for a moment?

The SPEAKER. The Chair might remind the gentleman of the ruling made by the Chair yesterday on the question raised by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, much as I hate to say it, because I am losing a vote, nevertheless my modesty—I was going to say innate honesty—requires me to answer the gentleman from Cambria that I have now definite confirmation of my own opinion from the appellate court, and the gentleman who codified the laws, who had the hand, the great hand, the major hand, the overwhelming hand in drafting this bill, who says that this amendment which takes out the words “and clubs” puts the law back into the same shape as it is today, without this bill or without the amendment.

I, therefore, trust the gentleman from Cambria in consideration of both the opinion I have given and my honesty in the matter will change his mind and vote “aye” on my amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments offered by Mr. Turner as follows:

Amend sec. 461, page 87, line 7, by inserting after the word “and” the following: “for an eighteen month period beginning with the effective date of this act, incorporated”.

Amend sec. 461, page 87, line 8, by inserting after the word “exceeded” the following: “Provided, however, That during said period of eighteen months following the effective date of this act, any club otherwise qualified, may be licensed at any time after its incorporation whether or not it shall have been in existence and operation for a period of one year”.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, will the Chair explain to the House that a vote “aye” is a vote for the amendments just read and submitted by myself.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was just about to do that. Those voting “aye” vote for the amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner. Those voting “no” vote against the amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. I desire to ask the gentleman whether if a club is operated during the period of this eighteen months and makes an application for a club liquor license, his amendments would mean that it can be granted even though that organization has not been incorporated for one year?

Mr. TURNER. That is right, Mr. Speaker. That was to take care of the service clubs.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is unable to decide.

Whereupon, a division was had, 106 Members voting in the affirmative and 45 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now take up the amendments offered by the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Foor.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would yield to the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Foor, if he desires to speak on his amendments. I would not want to usurp his time.

Mr. FOOR. Mr. Speaker, I would like a roll call.

The SPEAKER. Is the roll call seconded? Seconded by the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Dix.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, —

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my second to the request for a roll call.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I thought that the gentleman from Bedford might want to debate his amendments and I withdrew for that purpose.

However, before putting the question I wondered whether the gentleman from Bedford would not withdraw his amendments, because his amendments now would be out of place in the bill which provides that for eighteen months it shall be open. If you put “and clubs” in, then, of course, I do not believe it would do either one of the things, it would not create what Mr. Foor wants, nor would it be in consonance with the amendment already adopted by the House.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, if all these three sets of amendments are passed what would happen?

The SPEAKER. The Chair might state to the gentleman from Philadelphia that these amendments are purely a question to be decided by the House. They are being submitted to the House, and they must be disposed of by the House.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The effect upon the bill is not for the Chair to decide.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. FOOR. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my request for a roll call and ask for a division.

A division having been called for, 36 Members voting in the affirmative and 126 in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair now lays before the House the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Capano.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Sec. 461, page 86, lines 10 to 20, inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend Sec. 461, page 87, lines 1 to 20, inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend Sec. 461, page 88, lines 1 to 10, inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, the effect of these amendments, as has been stated before, would be to remove all of the quota law. It would be in opposition in particular to what the House just decided with reference to the amendments offered by myself.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TURNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman says that the amendments offered by the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Capano, would wipe out the quota law entirely. Is that not the effect of the amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware, which have just been adopted by this House?

Mr. TURNER. No, Mr. Speaker, the amendments offered by myself only applied to clubs for a limited period of eighteen months. This amendment would wipe it out entirely for all licenses, whether it be clubs or retail licenses.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, sometime ago I made a motion which apparently was out of order because of the agreement between the Speaker of the House and the gentlemen who introduced the amendments. My intentions were after the amendments were settled to make a motion that the bill be recommitted to the Committee from which it originated, but the overwhelming vote for the amendments of the gentleman from Delaware Mr. Turner, has completely defeated me, and I therefore will not make the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the article as amended?

It was agreed to.

The fifth to the ninth articles inclusive and the title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, to be transcribed for third reading.

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second section was read and agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. SCOTT offered the following amendment:

Amend title, page 2, last line of title on said page, by striking out the words "or otherwise physically handicapped" and inserting in lieu thereof "in school districts other than in cities of the first class".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate my adviser, the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman from Westmoreland is not confused.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Westmoreland whether this is the bill that the Members from the rural districts voted for and the Members from the cities voted against?

Mr. LOVETT. I will be very glad to answer the gentleman and state that this possibly is the bill that the rural people voted against and the city people voted for.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that there is a Committee meeting being held at this time, and seemingly there is opposition to this bill from some quarters, would it be possible to pass it over for the time being?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will be glad to entertain such a request.

The roll call having been started, will the House give its unanimous consent to temporarily pass this bill over? The Chair hears no objection, and the bill is passed over.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 49, as follows:

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, in the counties where they have not been issuing registration cards to those who register, what happens under this bill and what is the compulsion under the bill to require the County Commissioners or other proper officers to see that those who are registered get an evidence in the form of a card?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that there is any compulsion in this bill to require statements or certificates by the Commissioners in the district where such are not already provided.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, how do I prove that I am twenty-one other than by looks if I do not get a card?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, in those cases where no such registration certificates are available the law as it exists at present would apply. The bill does not therefore protect the licensees in those districts.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, only in those districts where the County Commissioners are issuing cards?

Mr. SORG. That is my understanding, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Does not the gentleman believe that there should be something in this bill to compel the Commissioners to issue registration cards?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I would have no objection and

I probably would vote for such a measure, but I do not see the necessity for its being placed in this particular bill.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Elk permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SORG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Elk, Mr. Sorg, what would happen in a case where the person, the minor under 18 years of age, would secure a registration card, go into the liquor store and then make an affidavit under section three, and then be instructed that the affidavit required under section three is incorrect? Would that minor be subject to imprisonment for thirty days and a fine?

Mr. SORG. It is my understanding, Mr. Speaker, that they would.

Mr. BROWN. I did not hear the answer of the gentleman on account of the noise.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, it is my understanding that he would, under the present law, for misstating his age.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, suppose the minor is fourteen years of age and would do the same thing, would the minor then be subject to imprisonment for thirty days?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I presume in such a case he would be subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, where in this bill does it say that the Juvenile Court shall have jurisdiction?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, we rely for the procedural provisions, under this bill, in the general law as it exists at the present time for a minor who mis-states his age for the purpose of obtaining liquor.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman feel that there should be a clarifying amendment here that would specifically so state the proposition that he says is his opinion?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I do not think that any such clarifying amendment is necessary.

Mr. BROWN. The gentleman said a few minutes ago that a minor under eighteen would be subject to thirty days imprisonment, and as to the second question he said that a minor under fourteen would be subject to the Juvenile Court. Which is right?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's first inquiry, it was my understanding that the gentleman referred only to minors; he specifically mentioned eighteen years of age. Such minors would be subject to the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court, and in that event I was in error.

Mr. BROWN. The gentleman then does not feel that the bill is sufficiently important to put that safeguard in the amendment, lest his opinion may be wrong.

Mr. SORG. I feel sure, Mr. Speaker, that my opinion is right, in spite of the fact that the bill is important, and that it does not require any specific provision to cover that situation.

Mr. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, in the counties where we have no Juvenile Court, what would be the provision?

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, in any county one who is subject to the juvenile laws will be proceeded with just as he would in the case of any other similar proceeding for appearance in Juvenile Court, or whatever proceeding is provided.

Mr. BROWN. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I think I have changed my mind about this bill. I think it will stimulate registration. I have noticed from the election returns and the statistics that wherever there is universal registration, the larger the number of people who register the bigger the Democratic vote, and so I have decided to support this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up House Bill No. 542, Printer's No. 585, on page 12 of today's calendar, bills on final passage.

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 542, as follows:

Section 1 Short Title
This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Parking Authority Law"

Section 2 Findings and Declaration of Policy
It is hereby determined and declared as a matter of Legislative finding

(a) That residential decentralization in cities of the second class has been accompanied by an ever increasing trend in the number of persons entering the business sections by private automobile as compared with other modes of transportation

(b) That the free circulation of traffic of all kinds through the streets of cities of second class is necessary to the health safety and general welfare of the public whether residing in the city or traveling to through or from the city in the course of lawful pursuits

(c) That the greatly increased use by the public of motor vehicles of all kinds has caused serious traffic congestion on the streets of cities of the second class

(d) That the parking of motor vehicles on the streets has contributed to this congestion to such an extent as to interfere seriously with the primary use of such streets for the movement of traffic

(e) That such parking prevents the free circulation of traffic in through and from the city impedes rapid and effective fighting of fires and the disposition of police forces in the district and endangers the health safety and welfare of the general public

(f) That such parking threatens irreparable loss in valuations of property in the city which can no longer be readily reached by vehicular traffic

(g) That this parking crisis which threatens the welfare of the community can be reduced by providing sufficient off-street parking facilities properly located in the several residential commercial and industrial areas of the city

(h) That the establishment of a parking authority will promote the public safety convenience and welfare

(i) That it is intended that the authority cooperate with all existing parking facilities so that private enterprise and government may mutually provide adequate parking services for the convenience of the public

Therefore it is hereby declared to be the policy of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to promote the safety and welfare of the inhabitants thereof by the creation in second class cities of bodies corporate and politic to be known as "Parking Authorities" which shall exist and operate for the purposes contained in this act Such purposes are hereby declared to be public uses for which public money may be spent and private property may be acquired by the exercise of the power of eminent domain

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny county, Mr. Waldron.

Mr. WALDRON. Mr. Speaker, I request a slow roll call, please.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, when I yielded to the gentleman I thought he wished to debate the bill. I would not have yielded had I known that was not his purpose. He certainly has a right to ask for a slow roll call.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to discuss with you House Bill No. 542, which provides for the city of Pittsburgh a Parking Authority. As the Members of both sides of the House are well aware, this bill had quite a stormy passage so far through the House, but the sponsors for the bill, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Richter, and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, together with the leaders on both sides of the House, have been in continual consultation on it and have agreed finally to amendments to which I believe have met all the opposition, at least they have met the opposition that had been raised by the principal opponents. I believe now that we have in House Bill 542 a measure that will provide for the City of Pittsburgh and the residents of Allegheny county generally much needed legislation and much needed relief in a situation that is purely of a local nature. I would urge upon every member of this House to vote and support this piece of legislation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is very pleased to observe a former Member in the House, the gentleman from Westmoreland, Honorable Roy Heberlin.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I desire permission to make a brief statement. The question has been raised as to whether in releasing House Bill 417, the Education Committee acted in defiance of the Governor's wishes. I would not be in a position to pass on that and I would not know whether the Committee on Education was defying the Governor or whether the Governor was defying the Committee. I do say, in view of the statements that have been made it is time that there be some clarification of the position.

According to the current press the Majority Leader has stated that it will be necessary for him to offer various amendments to House Bill 417. What amendments? What is the Governor's position? What is the position of the Majority party with regard to this bill? Isn't it time that we had a program? Isn't it time that we knew what position the leadership of the House was to take? We are going home over the week-end and I would like to be in a position to discuss with the educators in my home town, with the members of the school board in my city, and with the taxpayers the changes which the administration or the administration spokesmen propose to make in House Bill 417. The financial background of our school legislation, the details of it are too much of a secret somewhere, and I submit to you that it is time that we knew just what the basic proposals to which this administration is committed are. We know the planks in the two platforms; we know it is definitely pledged to raise teachers' salaries to a professional level. What is the Governor's answer to the pledges that the Republican Party and the Democratic Party made to the people of this Commonwealth? I would like to know what that answer is so that I can discuss it with my constituents back home.

Mr. SORG. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire at the present time nor any intention to debate the merits or demerits of House Bill 417. I feel, however, that I should say that my statements to the effect that it would require amendments had in mind those amendments at least that would make it practical. I want to say that perhaps the gentleman is just about twenty minutes ahead of just exactly such a statement as he has requested. The problem, I understand, will be issued publicly, containing a statement of the facts involved, and the unmistakable clear attitude of this administration towards the teachers' salaries problem. I feel before the gentleman leaves and before he meets his constituents over this week-end that he will have a great deal of information, valuable information, that should be sufficient to make adequately clear to him the plans for this particular session in the event the Members of this House should see fit to subscribe to them.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the Majority Leader and the administration for service. It is the first time I ever made a basic request and was told that I would be answered in twenty minutes.

RESOLUTION NO. 34

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to call up House Resolution No. 34 on page 20 of today's calendar. The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 31, 1947.

Whereas The taxpayers of this State and Nation have spent upwards of five million dollars to plan and construct the Scranton and Wilkes-Barre Airport soon to be opened and

Whereas It is widely known in aviation circles that the excellent planning and development of this air field has made it a very important link in the potential civil and military air transportation pattern of the northeastern part of our country and

Whereas Field examiners for the Civil Aeronautics Board recently recommended to the full Board that all applications made by major airlines to serve the Scranton-Wilkes-Barre Airport be rejected and that small untried air service groups be permitted to provide air transportation to and from the Nation's 19th largest metropolitan area and

Whereas The people of northeastern Pennsylvania under the proposed recommendations in addition to the denial of major air line service will be without air transportation to esuch import business and governmental areas as Harrisburg our State Capitol New England the Midwest the West and the South and

Whereas The confirmation of the field examiners' recommendations by Civil Aeronautics Board proper will have a further bad effect on the employment rehabilitation of northeastern Pennsylvania and will deny to Pennsylvania's outstanding all-weather airport its rightful place in ascending civil air traffic in this country therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives that it is the opinion of the membership of the House that the recommendation of the field examiners should not be accepted by the civil Aero nautics Board and be it further

Resolved that the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission give its support and cooperation in the effort of the people of northeastern Pennsylvania to have the recommendation of the field examiners disapproved

RESOLUTIONS

Mr. HENRY offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk under the Rules.

Mr. McCULLOUGH offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk under the Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. HOFFMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a condolence resolution he was about to present.

CONDOLENCE RESOLUTION

Messrs. HOFFMAN, JONES and RAGOT offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 14, 1947.

The members of the House of Representatives are saddened to learn of the death of Herbert H. Roseberry, a former member, who died yesterday, May 12, 1947, in the Easton Hospital, Easton, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Roseberry was born in Easton, Pennsylvania, on September 24, 1887, the son of Dr. Charles I. and Sophia B. (Ludwig) Roseberry, and throughout his life was active in its affairs.

Mr. Roseberry was a man whose integrity was above reproach. He willingly assumed civic responsibilities and served his community and State with distinction and honor. Those who knew him well can attest to his wholesome personality and to his sympathetic understanding; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the passing of Herbert H. Roseberry, his community and State have lost the services of a conscientious citizen; and be it further

PRESENTATION OF GIFT

The SPEAKER. The Chair has a very pleasant duty to perform. The Chair in trying to keep his eye on the Members of the House failed to look to his right. Yesterday the Chair congratulated the Member from Lackawanna, Mr. Cordier, on becoming the proud father of another Republican. Since then Members of the House have seen fit to provide a fund for this child, and it gives us great pleasure to present at this time to Baby Cordier of Lackawanna County the following baby bank, with, I believe, some wherewithal, for the gentleman to present to the child when he goes home. Will the gentleman come to the rostrum and receive the gift? The Chair is very pleased on behalf of the Members of the House to present this gift to Baby Cordier.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, will the Chair quote the rule of the House regarding solicitation of money?

The SPEAKER. The Chair for the moment is unaware of any rule in the book.

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to offer my wholehearted thanks to the Members of this House for this excellent gift, and I want to assure you that this youngster has a much better chance in life than I had.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. BENTZEL. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Thursday, May 15, 1947 at 10:00 a. m. Eastern Standard Time.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 3:07 p. m. EST) the House adjourned.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. W. MURRAY YOUNG offered the following prayer:

Consider and hear us, O Lord, our God. Lead us to walk uprightly before Thee, and help us to work righteousness, and speak truth in our hearts. We lift our prayer to the throne of Eternal Justice, where there is love unspeakable and full of glory. Grant us, Thy Holy Spirit, that we may grow in mind, in soul, and in appreciation of all things worth while. Be with us in our struggles and in our triumphs; may we never neglect to praise Thee for that power which brings us into the joy and liberty of life. Be pleased, Eternal God, to bless our own true America, which is composed of a God-fearing and family-loving people, ever holding to the sacred ideals which have been the guide and the stay of our destiny. Make us proud of our heritage; so proud that we will refuse to waste or desecrate that which has cost so much in human sacrifice and devotion.

Gladly may we surrender all we are, and all we have, to the cause of the highest good, as it is in Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen!

GENERAL COMMUNICATION

The Clerk cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communication, which was read by the Clerk:

PENNSYLVANIA CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Incorporated

May 13, 1947

Secretary of the Senate,
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

At its annual meeting, held in Harrisburg on March 28, the Society adopted two resolutions which its officers were directed to transmit to the chairman of the appropriate legislative committees. It has just been brought to my attention that, through inadvertence, transmittal was not effected. Therefore, as a matter of record, I am sending them as a part of this letter.

Resolution 1

Whereas problems affecting the health of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are related to the practice of chemistry, and

Whereas the findings of many chemical investigations are essential to the protection of public health.

Be it resolved that the Pennsylvania Chemical Society recommend to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that at least one member of the State Advisory Health Board shall, at all times, be a chemist qualified by training and experience in matters relating to public health.

Resolution 2

Whereas many of the advances in medicine and related sciences that have contributed to the alleviation of disease, the improvement of public health, and the prolongation of life were made possible only by investigation conducted upon experimental animals;

Be it resolved that the Pennsylvania Chemical Society is of the opinion that the enactment into law of Senate Bill 384 of the session of 1947 entitled "An Act to Prohibit Experimentation Upon Living Dogs" would be prejudicial to the future health and welfare of the public and detrimental to the advancement of medical, nutritional and related sciences.

Very truly yours,

E. P. BARRETT, Secretary
